Cost of Floods To Be Financed On Joint Basis

Ottawa to Pay Half for Relief Prime Minister King Announces

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP)—A joint financial arrangement between the Dominion and British Columbia Governments for relief and rehabilitation in the flood-stricken western province was announced tonight by Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

The arrangement, worked out after conferences here this week with Premier Byron Johnson, is as follows:

1. Costs of temporary emergency relief will be divided equally between the two governments.

2. The Federal Government will bear 75 per cent and the Provincial Government 25 per cent of the costs of emergency measures already taken or being taken for strengthening dikes and their eventual reconstruction, and for the restoration of their protected lands by the pumping out of flood waters.

3. Cost of eventual rehabilitation of the affected areas will be settled by later agreement between the two governments after receiving a report from the Fraser Valley Relief and Rehabilitation Commission.

Prime Minister King said that in calculating the Dominion's share of the cost of emergency relief and dike restoration, account will be taken of the amount spent by the Federal authorities in providing services and supplies and through employment of the armed services.

Partial text of Mr. King's statement:

"Since his arrival in Ottawa, Hon. Byron I. Johnson, the Premier of British Columbia, has been conferring with the Minister of Finance and other members of the Government as well as myself . . .

"After consideration by the Cabinet today, the Federal Government agreed to accept financial liability for measures of relief and rehabilitation arising from the flooding of the Fraser Valley on the following basis.

DIVIDED EQUALLY

"1. The costs of temporary emergency relief to be divided equally between the two governments.

"2. The costs of emergency measures already taken or being taken for protecting and strengthening the dikes and for their eventual reconstruction, and for the restoration of the protected lands by the pumping out of flood waters, to be met 75 per cent by the Federal Government and the remaining 25 per cent by the Provincial Government;

"3. The costs of rehabilitating the areas affected by the floods to be settled by subsequent agreement between the two governments after receiving a report on the extent of damage from the Fraser Valley Relief and Rehabilitation Commission.

"In calculating the Federal share of the cost of emergency relief and of protecting and restoring the dikes, it was understood that costs incurred by the Federal authorities through the provision of services and supplies, and as a result of the employment of the armed services would be taken into account.

"Both governments have already directed their representatives, General Hoffmeister and Mr. Hamber, not to permit the working out of detailed arrangements to delay action urgently required to provide adequate emergency relief, or to maintain, to repair or to restore the dikes."

Streams Cause Washouts

REVELSTOKE, B.C., June 8 (CP).—Swollen mountain streams wreaked new havoc with rail and road transportation in British Columbia tonight.

An unnamed creek cut the Canadian Pacific Railway main line at Glen William, about nine miles west of here, and tore a 30-foot gap in the Trans-Canada Highway.

The new washouts came less than 48 hours after the C.P.R. main line had been restored to within 60 miles of Vancouver.

Extent of damage to the rail line was not immediately known. The Kootenay smelter city of Trail tonight continued its all-out defence activity against Columbia River flood waters, expected to sweep down on the city tomorrow.

The river gauge at Revelstoke registered a 20-inch rise during the last 24 hours, and a three-inch increase at Trail.

Gordon Head Airpark Provides Emergency Landing Field

—Colonist Photo

This aerial photo shows the flying field at Gordon Head which has been developed enough to serve as an emergency field. The cross runway stops before the road because of Department of Transport regulations that the actual runway must not be any closer to the roadway. The wooded area at right is property that the Greater Victoria Memorial Airpark Association wants to buy, to extend the field. The cross runway is placed in the best position for prevailing winds in the area. The photograph, taken from a Victoria Flying Club plane, piloted by Jack Jenkins, shows Cadboro Bay in the upper left and the Uplands golf course at the upper right. In the foreground is the army camp.

Melting Snowcaps Feed Floods Swelling Rivers to New Levels

VANCOUVER, June 8 (CP).—The three main waterways of British Columbia tonight threatened new fury as melting snowcaps on Interior mountains generously fed the floods.

The 34,000-strong Fraser Valley dike battalions mustered to meet the new swell created by swift Interior run-offs. Sleepless flood controllers maintained a wary eye on the Fraser tide.

At Mission, the valley city of evacuees, the Fraser rose almost Hell's Gate, north of Hope and Hedd's Gate, north of Hope and two inches at Interior Prince George.

COLUMBIA HIGHER

Farther East at Revelstoke, the Columbia rose 20 inches, and the Thompson River at Kamloops was up two inches. The Fraser tide of 14.4 feet Thursday night may spell new disaster, devastation and peril.

Reinforcing the dikes, rapidly growing weaker under relentless pressure, is an around-the-clock task. Troops from Manitoba will arrive tomorrow to bolster dike forces.

Today, five R.C.A.F. Dakota transports evacuated the 100 ranks and five officers of the Lord Strathcona Horse Regiment from inundated Creston, 350 miles east.

Tonight the men were laboring on the Lulu Island dikes 13 miles south of here where evacuation of 5,000 persons was requested. The residents part of the island's 20,000 population, are staying with their homes, however, until the tide reaches its peak.

An airborne shipment of 250,000 sandbags to Vancouver today exhausted the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps' reserve of 1,550,000. Flood controllers were placing orders with sandbag wholesalers from the coast to Winnipeg.

In the valley at Abbotsford, a charge was made today that reserve army men have been threatened with loss of their jobs while they fight the devastating floods.

Lt.-Col. Herbert Fullerton, Irish Fusiliers, said he has been "pestered to death."

"Employers are telephoning and almost ordering me to relieve men under my command. I want to clarify this situation," he said. "The reserve army men are not volunteers. They have been ordered out under terms of the Militia Act. I have no authority to release my men and it's up to the Government to guarantee the security of their jobs."

Torrid temperatures again today blistered most of the flood-beset province. Lytton, the Gorge village at the union of the Fraser and Thompson rivers, recorded 100 degrees.

Royal Canadian Navy evacuation forces were standing by at the valley centres of Pitt Meadows, Veddar Canal and Lulu Island. The past three days of near-tropical sunshine have boiled dike-banks into muddy stews and increased river pressure would undermine defences.

Into the troubled flood front today came three top-flight dike experts from the United States. They are Col. J. Hewitt, Commander of U.S. Army Engineers at Seattle; John Monarch, operations division engineer, and his assistant, Raymond Bracelin.

The control crew was loaned to Canada following a plea for engineering assistance from Reconstruction Minister Howe.

Meanwhile, a behind-the-dikes battle was being fought by the Red Cross, army and navy hostels, caring for evacuees, feeding them three times a day.

Nineteen-year-old Miss Lucienne Ulliac was drowned while swimming in flood waters at Harrison Mills Monday, Provincial Police reported today.

The body was recovered and taken to Chilliwack.

New Price Boost Predicted for Beef

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP).—Agriculture Department officials predicted today retail beef prices will go up another ten to 15 cents a pound before the month-end.

They said beef marketings are declining sharply due to the seasonal shortage of livestock during the period while beef cattle are turned out onto the feedlots, and farmers are holding back cattle in the expectation the Government will remove the ban on beef cattle shipments to the United States.

C.C.F. Captures Federal Seats In B.C., Ontario

Party Wins Two By-Elections Cutting Liberal House Majority

By The Canadian Press

The C.C.F. scored victories yesterday in two by-elections called to fill vacancies in the House of Commons.

Victor in Vancouver Centre was Rodney Young, a 38-year-old law student.

Arthur Williams, labor organizer, was elected in Ontario riding which surrounds the automobile-manufacturing city of Oshawa, about 25 miles east of Toronto.

The standing in the House of Commons now is:

Liberals, 124; Progressive Conservatives, 66; C.C.F., 31; Social Credit, 13; Independent, 4; Bloc Populaire, 2; Independent Liberal, 1; Independent Progressive Conservative, 1; Independent C.C.F., 1; Union des Electeurs, 1; vacant, 1.

Last week the C.C.F. won the Federal by-election in the traditionally Conservative riding of Yale in British Columbia.

The Ontario riding Federal seat became vacant with the death of W. E. N. Sinclair, a Liberal. The Vancouver Centre by-election was called to choose a successor to Senator Ian Mackenzie, former Veterans' Minister, who was appointed to the Senate last December.

THREE-PARTY FIGHT

A straight three-party fight developed in each riding.

Arthur Williams won the Ontario Federal by-election for the C.C.F. by rolling up a plurality of 1,977 votes over his nearest opponent, Lyman Gifford, Liberal.

Complete returns for the 150 polls tonight gave Williams 10,301 votes, Gifford 8,324, and Mayor Frank McCallum of Oshawa, the Progressive Conservative candidate, 7,555.

Mr. Williams was victor for the C.C.F. in the 1943 general election but lost the seat in 1945.

"This is a victory for a party, not for any one man," he said in a statement tonight. "I am very proud that I am a member of the C.C.F. and proud of what it stands for."

The Ontario constituency is traditionally Liberal, having elected a candidate of that party since 1930, but interest was livened up by yesterday's C.C.F. victory in Ontario riding in the provincial general election.

Voting was light during the early part of the day but increased in tempo as the weather brightened and was heavy before poll closing time at 7 p.m.

Vancouver Law Student Victorious

VANCOUVER, June 8 (CP).—Rodney Young, 38-year-old University of British Columbia law student, today captured the Vancouver Centre Federal riding for the C.C.F. Voting in the three-party by-election contest was one of the lightest in the 31-year history of the seat. It was a Liberal loss.

In his first try for political office, Young polled a plurality of 2,365 votes over Ralph Campney, K.C., Liberal candidate and his nearest opponent.

Complete returns for the 183 polls tonight gave Young 9,935 votes, Campney 7,570 and Lyla Jestley, Progressive Conservative standard-bearer, 5,243.

The C.C.F. victory ended the 18-year-old tenure of the Liberal party.

The seat was vacated with the appointment of former Veterans' Minister Ian Mackenzie to the Senate in December. Mr. Mackenzie had represented the riding since 1930. Its only other representative was Hon. H. H. Stevens who occupied the seat for the Conservative party from the time of the riding's creation in 1917 until his 1930 defeat.

KEEN DEBATER

Young, a former railroad and shipyard worker, has had 18 years of experience with the C.C.F. He joined the army in 1940, fought in Italy and Western Europe. He is known as a keen debater.

He said tonight he would bear the people's cause to the seat of government "as their servant and their voice."

"The day of monopoly capitalism is drawing to a close and the age of socialism and peace for all men is at hand."

"May I be worthy of the faith and confidence of the C.C.F., the movement of the mass of the Canadian people."

Young took an early lead in the Vancouver Centre voting — he was short 53 votes of the two opposition candidates' total after the first ten polls.

Big guns of all parties were in the campaign. External Affairs Minister St. Laurent and Trade Minister Howe headed the Liberal forces. John Bracken, national leader, led the Progressive Conservatives and M. J. Coldwell, Federal chief, of the C.C.F. The campaigners also included Agriculture Minister Gardiner.

No Session on Floods Planned by B.C. House

Special session of the Legislature to deal with the gigantic task of rehabilitating flooded areas in British Columbia is not contemplated, it was learned yesterday.

It is acknowledged that huge sums may be required for rebuilding of roads, bridges and dikes, in addition to re-establishing individual farmers. Exactly how much money the Government will spend this year, however, and the details of the rehabilitation plan are not expected to be disclosed until Premier Byron Johnson returns from Ottawa.

Some form of centralized flood control agency, talked about in the Province for years, will be set up at the next session of the Legislature, Government sources said.

Agriculture Minister Frank Putnam yesterday estimated that at least 50,000 acres of agricultural land in the Province have suffered from the floods. With the prolonged submersion of fields in most areas, he said, no hay and forage crops can be expected this Summer. On the other hand, farmers may be able to reap something from Autumn crops.

The Minister acknowledged that feed shortages would force many farmers to sharply reduce their dairy and beef herds. He urged that farmers sell off only their poorer stock. The flood would provide a good opportunity for culling herds, Mr. Putnam said. Prices were still high.

Fruit farmers may be among the worst sufferers from the inundation. Apple and other large orchard trees submerged for a prolonged period are almost certain to die, while small fruits will also have to be replanted in most cases, he intimated.

Mr. Putnam himself was a big loser in the Kootenay floods yesterday. His 1,500-acre farm at Creston is under water. He believes the buildings, located on higher ground, will be saved.

Two hundred pigs and 180 head of cattle on the Minister's farm were moved before the dikes broke.

Jewish-Arab Truce Set For Friday—Chance Dim

CAIRO, June 8 (AP).—Count Folke Bernadotte disclosed tonight that he has asked Jews and Arabs to stop fighting in Palestine at 6 a.m. Greenwich Time Friday (11 p.m. P.D.T. Thursday).

He said he had asked for Arab and Jewish replies to his proposed truce terms by noon tomorrow.

But dispatches from Amman, the Trans-Jordan capital, said prospects for any truce were growing dim.

While all Arab states were reported standing firm against accepting Jewish conditions for a truce, a reinforced Egyptian spearhead was reported fighting to get out of a Jewish trap at Isdud, 23 miles south of Tel Aviv.

Israel's army said its patrols had penetrated Jenin, much fought-over Arab strongpoint in Central Palestine, and "found it deserted." Jenin, the northern edge of the so-called Arab "triangle of strength," was entered by the Jews in hard fighting last week. Later, the Arabs said they had driven the Jews out and an Associated Press correspondent who visited the town Saturday found them gone. The later Israeli communique did not say whether the patrols remained in Jenin.

A Tel Aviv dispatch said Egyptian planes bombed the centre of Tel Aviv in relays all morning and hit the tall office building housing Bernadotte's mission there. Bernadotte's aides said he has no office there, but a U.N. office is at that location.

(Reuters said it was announced in Tel Aviv that an Egyptian Spitfire was shot down by anti-aircraft fire south of Tel Aviv Tuesday during "indiscriminate raids" on the city area.)

Turkey to Get New Cabinet

ANKARA, Turkey, June 8 (Wednesday) (AP).—Premier Hasan Saka's Government collapsed early today under mounting criticism from the public and its own political party over domestic economic policies.

President Ismet Inonu immediately asked Saka to form a new government.

Political circles said they believed the next Cabinet would have new ministers in the economic, commerce, labor and possibly the agricultural ministries.

Shortages of staple foodstuffs, charges of irregularities in the export of grains and failure of the Government to adjust Turkey's weak economic structure led to the Cabinet's resignation.

Ilsley Defends Publicity Given Report of Inquiry

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP).—Justice Minister Ilsley tonight in the Commons defended the propriety of publishing last week's report alleging a combine in the optical goods trade before the launching of prosecutions.

Publication of the report of Combines Commissioner F. A. McGregor was criticized by John Diefenbaker (P.C., Lake Centre) during consideration of Justice Department estimates.

Mr. Diefenbaker questioned that there was justification for "trying individuals before the bar of public opinion by the publication of reports indicating guilt when a subsequent prosecution may take place."

Mr. Ilsley said the Combines Investigation Act provided that such reports were to be made public.

Publicity was a necessity. Otherwise, the public had no way of knowing if a combine existed.

Mr. Ilsley likened publication of reports to that of evidence in a court preliminary inquiry. However, the reports should be fair to those concerned, and he felt this was the case in the present instance.

Mr. Diefenbaker asked if Mr. Ilsley as Dominion Attorney-General intended to launch court prosecutions, but Mr. Ilsley did not indicate his intentions in this direction.

E. G. McCullough (C.C.F., Assiniboia) said the Combines Investigation Act in its present form would not halt "unfair prices."

Monopolies were getting away with "nothing less than legalized robbery," he said.

Losses High In Washington

OLYMPIA, June 8 (AP).—Flood damage in Washington State has mounted to $30,926,300, Governor Wallgren announced today.

He based his figures on a survey made by State, Federal and local agencies.

B.C. 'Man's Country' Says Bishop Sexton

SAFFRON WALDEN, Essex, England, June 8 (CP).—Rt. Rev. Harold Sexton, Bishop of British Columbia, wants 11 young British Anglican clergy, "pioneers and ready for hard work," for vacancies in "a man's country."

The bishop, now in Britain for the Lambeth Conference opening next month, said today the terms are £450 ($1,800) a year plus offerings, fees, expenses and a free house.

"There is no other country in the world for a clergyman on Mondays," the bishop said, "with its lakes and rivers full of salmon, British Columbia is a man's country."

Saanich Opens Flood Aid Fund

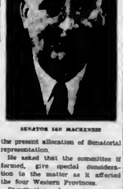

The Saanich Flood Relief Fund started off with a big push last night when the council voted unanimously to donate $4,000 from municipal funds for rehabilitation of Fraser Valley flood victims.

Collection headquarters will be set up today in the council chambers at the Royal Oak Municipal Hall. Saanich Board of Trade has been named to conduct the drive. Each ward councillor will act as ward captain and will appoint at least two persons to the relief committee.

Claude Butler, board president, told the council that the Vancouver Board of Trade requested the Saanich group take over the task for the municipality.

More Senators in West Asked by Ian Mackenzie

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP).—Senator Ian Mackenzie (L., British Columbia) tonight moved in the Senate that a special committee be set up to examine, among other things, the present allocation of Senatorial representation.

SENATOR IAN MACKENZIE

He asked that the committee if formed, give special consideration to the matter as it affected the four Western Provinces.

Distribution of population had changed since the time the number of Senators who represent the various areas in Canada had been settled. The population of Western Canada had increased greatly. He wanted the committee to decide if present Senatorial allocation gave adequate recognition to that area.

He asked that the committee be composed of six Senators from each of Ontario, Quebec, the Maritimes and the Western Provinces.

They would consider the rules and regulations, the practice and procedure of the Senate.

After consideration and examination the committee would recommend what revision can be made in the rules and regulations to enable the Senate to perform definite and constructive functions.

It was Senator Mackenzie's night. Earlier he read a list of 29 questions about oils and fats.

One of them—"Is the Government aware of any member of either House of Parliament who is identified with the promotion of the production of oleomargarine in Canada?"—drew a protest from Senator William Euler (L., Ontario).

Senator Euler rose and asked if the question referred to him.

If it did, he denied having any interest in the butter-substitute other than seeing that the poorer people of Canada received a fair deal.

BULLETINS

Replacements

VANCOUVER, June 8 (CP).—Maj.-Gen. M. H. S. Penhale, officer commanding Western Command, tonight announced that personnel of the active force would be drawn from other parts of Canada to help replace reserve army flood workers in British Columbia.

The announcement followed reports some reservists had been threatened with loss of employment unless they returned to their jobs.

Under Strength

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP).—Justice Minister Ilsley said tonight in the Commons that the R.C.M.P. force is under strength but recruiting now is proving satisfactory.

Reports Levels

VANCOUVER, June 8 (CP).—Superintendent E. C. Webb of the Dominion Power and Water Bureau tonight reported the Fraser River level at Mission registered 24.25 feet compared with 24.32 at noon and 24.23 earlier today.

Other river readings included 33.30 at Hope, 96 feet at Hell's Gate, 30.96 at Quesnel. The river rose a half-foot in the last 24 hours at Chilliwack Lake.

Cook Street Being Completely Rebuilt

—Colonist Photo.

Crown on old Cook Street is being ripped away in rebuilding program now in progress on level section south of Fort Street. This section is being rebuilt completely and will be entirely new street when finished, Ald Dr. J. D. Hunter, public works committee chairman, said yesterday. Rain late in May delayed work, but not as long as anticipated. Picture was taken on repaired section between Fort Street and Rockland Avenue.

Bill to Change Income Tax Law Given Second Reading in House

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP)—A major move toward simplification of Canada's income tax law was made today in the Commons.

Members gave second reading—approval in principle—to a 131-clause bill making widespread changes to the Income War Tax Act. The bill, similar to one introduced but not dealt with at the ... ing and Commerce Committee for detailed study.

Plans for establishment of an income tax appeal board are outlined in the legislation. The board would include three to five members and would hear appeals against income tax assessments. At present, the taxpayer only can appeal to the Exchequer Court. The cost of such action has deterred some appeals.

With the establishment of the new board, the taxpayer will be able to launch an appeal with the board within 90 days after he has received an assessment from the Revenue Department. On filing his dissatisfaction with the assessment, the taxpayer will have to deposit only $15 with the board. If his appeal is allowed in whole or in ...

A similar appeal to the Exchequer Court requires a deposit of $400.

The chairman of the appeal board will be paid a salary of $13,000 a year, the assistant chairman $12,000 and every other member of the board $10,000 a year.

The board will be able to dispose of an appeal by dismissing it, by varying the assessment, or by referring the assessment back to the Revenue Minister for reconsideration.

Finance Minister Abbott said in his May 18 budget speech that the Government plans to bring the new act into operation January 1, 1949. It contains all the tax changes announced in the budget.

One new provision extends from three to five years the period over which farmers and fishermen may average their income for income tax purposes.

Some Opposition members objected to Parliament being asked to pass the bulky bill so late in the session. Others said the measure should be adopted because almost anything would be an improvement of existing legislation.

Mr Abbott warned that if simplification was postponed from one ... would be completed.

Before turning to the income tax measures, members voted 97 to 38 against a C.C.F. amendment which would have prevented the Government from cancelling at any time the recent reductions and suspension of tariffs on cotton and rayon goods entering Canada.

The vote split through Liberal, Progressive Conservative and Social Credit Party ranks.

Mr Abbott said the Government wished to retain the power to cancel the tariff reductions if the benefit was not passed on to the Canadian people. The amendment which later was adopted was to the Customs-Tariff Act. It now goes to the Senate.

German Plan Wins Support

PARIS, June 8 (AP)—The French Cabinet today approved the six-power agreement to set up a separate Western German state, and prepared to rush it through parliament by the end of the week.

Foreign Minister Georges Bidault got unanimous Cabinet approval of principal provisions in the agreement during a five-hour session under President Vincent Auriol.

The agreement is not popular in France for concessions to Germany are traditionally regarded without favor by the French.

NEW WESTMINSTER, June 8 (CP)—Naval Headquarters here tonight reported a break in the dike at the junction of the Pitt and Fraser rivers, about ten miles east of here.

Ten Mile Point Group Clamors For Water Supply Improvement

Demands for adequate water supplies were made to Saanich Council last night by an irate delegation of Ten Mile Point residents, who crowded the council chambers to capacity to air their complaints.

Introduced by Ward Three Councillor Len Hobbs, who described the area as the "Uplands of Saanich," the large delegation gained little from their interview with the council.

Reeve E C Warren and his council defended their point of view. Only thing accomplished by the meeting was a resolution passed by the council to seek the solicitor's advice on the matter of regulating sprinkling in certain areas. Council will seek to determine if it has the legal right to prohibit sprinkling in some areas and not in others. It was felt by a majority of the council that this would tend to give more water to hard-hit residents.

Members of the delegation claimed they had no water for any purposes for hours on end, sometimes all day and into the night. They protested against the two-inch water mains serving the Ten Mile Point area, contending that the pipes were not large enough.

Reeve Warren said that pipes just weren't available. He said $350,000 worth of piping had been on order for a considerable time, but only a fraction had been received.

Reeve Warren, who answered a battery of questions throughout the two-hour hearing, said the next shipment of pipe received was slated for installation in the Ten Mile Point area. If pipe had been available, he said their condition would have been remedied last year.

The reeve said he has never hidden the fact that a critical situation was developing in Saanich. He pointed out that the municipality could not refuse to issue building permits. Reeve Warren also reminded the delegation that by-laws for improvement of the water system have been defeated by the people in some areas.

Delegation members, claiming that there was no water for any household purposes, asked the council for assurance that the water supply would be increased. To this, Reeve Warren and H. D. Dawson, municipal engineer, stated that the solution to the problem was mainly obtaining of pipes.

Mr. Dawson said that every pump and reservoir in Saanich was in full operation. Too much use of sprinkling systems and the large number of persons moved into certain areas in the last few years were blamed for the condition by Mr. Dawson. Reeve Warren contended that a reservoir system was a logical answer, but he said sufficient pipes cannot be obtained from authorized or unauthorized dealers.

"The council is powerless if money by-laws are turned down," Reeve Warren stated, "and if there are no pipes on the market, we can't do the impossible."

Says Voting Shows Trend

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP)—M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, said tonight the Federal by-election results in Ontario riding and Vancouver Centre coupled with last week's returns in Yale—all three returned C.C.F. candidates—were a "fair sampling of the trend across Canada."

He said the C.C.F. Party was "very pleased and very delighted" with the election of C.C.F. members in Ontario riding and Vancouver Centre.

There was no comment from Prime Minister Mackenzie King or John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader.

A. L. Smith (P.C., Calgary West), said in the Commons tonight Rodney Young, C.C.F. winner of today's Federal by-election in Vancouver Centre, is a Communist.

"He is a radical to the extent of being a Communist," Mr. Smith said.

Flooring Area Enlarged In Mayfair

No opposition was voiced last night to an amendment to the Saanich zoning by-law, which called for 1,200 feet of floor space in single family dwellings in the Mayfair Heights district.

The public hearing was held just prior to the regular council meeting. A delegation from the Mayfair Heights Ratepayers' Association succeeded two weeks ago in getting the council to order preparation of a by-law requiring re-zoning of the area to permit erection of single family dwellings only, containing 1,200 square feet of floor space. Minimum was formerly 800 square feet.

A public hearing also was held for an amendment to the zoning by-law allowing erection of green houses for private use with a maximum area of 165 square feet. No objection was voiced.

Councillor K. R. Genn was appointed to represent the council at a public hearing regarding the application of the B.C. Electric Company for an increase in gas rates.

Council made a $150 public health grant to the Royal Jubilee Hospital as its donation for three months. As of April 1, the Provincial Government will make annual grants in order to relieve the municipalities.

Road Plan Held "Reasonable"

The $500,000 through-road program, which will be presented in Saanich in the form of a money by-law, will only cost ratepayers about 60 cents a month, H. D. Dawson, municipal engineer, stated at last night's council meeting.

The municipal engineer contended that $7 annually was above average. Reeve E. C. Warren maintained that this was very reasonable in view of the fact that everyone in Saanich would be within two blocks of a section of the new road system when completed.

John Tribe, municipal clerk, was instructed to proceed with drawing up the by-law, but date of voting was not set. Council hopes to put the road by-law and a $323,000 water distribution system by-law in Brentwood before the ratepayers at the same time.

Asks Ilsley For Spy Data

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP)—John Diefenbaker (P.C., Lake Centre) challenged the Government in the Commons tonight to tell the country whether Russian spy rings—uncovered during the war—are still operating in Canada.

In a cautiously-phrased reply, Justice Minister Ilsley replied that he would have to give "very careful consideration" before making any statement on the extent of the Government's information on Russian subversive activities.

The exchange between them came while the House was considering Royal Canadian Mounted Police estimates, and Mr Diefenbaker recalled the R.C.M.P.'s role in the spy investigation of 1946.

At that time, Mr Diefenbaker said, the Royal Commission on Espionage had turned up the existence of five separate Russian rings in Canada.

Oak Bay and Saanich Begin Lawn-Watering Restrictions

Continued dry weather has forced the institution of watering restrictions in Oak Bay and Saanich, engineering departments of the two municipalities announced [illegible]

A. S. G. Musgrave, Oak Bay municipal engineer, said effective immediately, even numbered houses will be allowed to water lawns and gardens only on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays

Odd numbered houses can water only Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays

Except for sprinkling systems, there will be no restrictions on Sundays

Owners with fixed sprinkling systems must not use them between 5 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. on any day, including Sunday.

From 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. there will be no water restrictions of any sort.

Mr. Musgrave explained that although larger water mains have been installed in the municipality, it has been found necessary to restrict the use of water for lawns and gardens.

Reason, he said, is that the mains coming from the Sooke water supply still are too small. He said, however, plans now are under way to relieve the situation.

H. D. Dawson, Saanich municipal engineer, said yesterday that all properties having an even street number or situated on the north or west side of a street will sprinkle on even numbered days only.

All properties having an odd street number or situated on the south or east side of the street will sprinkle on odd numbered days. Regulations regarding the use of water for gardening purposes apply to Sundays as well as other days. Open hose irrigation is strictly prohibited.

Any person found guilty of an infraction of these regulations is liable to a fine of not less than $25 for the first offence and not less than $50 for each subsequent offence, John Tribe, municipal clerk, said.

The city and Esquimalt are not contemplating having to enforce restrictions at this time.

SAIL FOR FESTIVAL

Passengers on board the Black Ball Ferry Line's Chinook when she left for Seattle late yesterday afternoon included 20 members of the Victoria Girls' Pipe Band—heading for Portland and the famous Rose Festival of that city.

With them was Thomas Chalmers, manager of the band. The group will travel from Seattle to Portland by bus, arriving at the latter city early this morning. The band will return to Victoria next Monday morning.

COMMUNITY WORKERS' CLUB

Community Workers' Club of Greater Victoria will meet in the Garden Library, 1170 Tattersall Drive, the home of Mrs. W. W. McGill, Thursday, at 8 p.m.

A buffet supper will be served and a colored travel picture shown.

CEREMONY POSTPONED

About 30 employees of the Victoria Post Office were disappointed yesterday.

At a special ceremony planned for yesterday afternoon, these senior postal men—all with 25 or more years' service—were to have received long-service badges from Gordon H. Clark, regional postal director at Vancouver.

However, Mr. Clark was unable to be in the city, and sent a telegram to that effect to J. B. Sinclair, local postmaster. The ceremony has been called off for an indefinite time.

COURT'S WARNING

A warning that the most respectable citizens will wind up in police court if they allow liquor to get the best of them was made yesterday by Magistrate H. C. Hall, in city police court.

Magistrate Hall was addressing a husband accused of assaulting his wife. The charge of assault was withdrawn, however, when the man consented to be placed on the interdict list.

"You see, even very respectable citizens wind up in police court if liquor gets the best of them," stated Magistrate Hall.

WILLIAMS TO SPEAK

Capt. O. J. Williams, manager of the C.P.R.'s British Columbia Coast Steamship Service, will be guest speaker at an annual luncheon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce harbor and industrial committee at the Douglas Hotel, Friday, starting at 12.10 p.m.

Capt. Williams recently returned from the United Kingdom and will speak on general impressions he received while dealing with shipping interests in that country.

The meeting will also include presentation of annual reports—one on harbor developments by Chairman Fred Hewes, and another by Duncan MacBride, dealing with industrial matters of the Greater Victoria area.

EMERGENCY MEETING

An emergency meeting of the Victoria Builders' Exchange, to discuss matters pertaining to the British Columbia flood relief fund, will be held at the Chamber of Commerce board room tomorrow at 4.30 p.m., it was announced yesterday by Secretary Roy T. Lougheed.

Practically all general contractors of this area report that about 90 per cent of their men have subscribed one day's pay toward the flood fund.

REGULAR MEETING

Members of the Ship Thermopylae will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Naval Veterans' Hall, 1400 Broad Street, tonight at 8.

EXTINGUISH FIRE

City firemen extinguished a garage roof fire at the corner of Belton Avenue and Craigflower Road about 10.30 a.m. yesterday.

ONE-THIRD PAID

One-third of this year's estimated city taxes have been paid to the city although tax bills have not yet been sent out, Acting Assessor-Collector H. G. Allan said yesterday.

"The amount of prepaid taxes is on the increase each year and has been steadily increasing since the idea of prepayment with a discount was started in the early twenties," Mr. Allan said. Taxpayers received the 4 per cent discount on $653,696 in tax payments made by May 31.

PLAN CANOE TRIP

The Y.M.C.A. Canoe Club will be out on the Gorge again tonight, according to Bob Morrison, program director. Members will leave the "Y" at 6.45 p.m. and Miller's Boathouse at 7:15 p.m.

Court Convicts Two Drivers

Walter Frederick Smith was fined $40 and had his driver's licence suspended for three months in city police court yesterday when he pleaded guilty to a dangerous driving charge.

Constable Brian Ferguson testified that Smith travelled from 50 to 70 miles an hour along Burnside Road on June 5.

Smith was fined $5 when he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving with no driver's licence, and another $40 when he pleaded guilty to a charge of failing to remain at the scene of an accident.

Thomas Harper, also charged with failing to remain at the scene of an accident, was fined $40. Harper and Smith were together at the time of the accident.

Paulette Shepherd was fined $40 and had her driver's licence suspended for one month when she pleaded guilty to a dangerous driving charge.

The charge arose out of an accident on Fairfield Road June 3, when a car driven by the accused was in collision with a telephone pole.

Ask Statement To Determine Need of Boost

City and municipal representatives will ask the Public Utilities Commission to supply a certified financial statement and breakdown of costs of transportation companies to determine policy on the [illegible]

This action was decided on at a meeting of city and municipal transportation committee members at City Hall yesterday called to discuss application of the B.C. Electric Railway and Vancouver Island Coach Lines for increased bus fares.

Ald. H. M. Diggon, chairman of the city committee, said that the commission is being asked to supply figures which have been certified as a true statement by the commission's auditors and accountants, not statements prepared by the companies.

"Then we will be able to see what justification the companies have for making application for fare increases," he said.

At the meeting was Councillor P. A. Gibbs, Oak Bay; Councillor K. R. Genn, Saanich; Reeve A. I. Thomas of Esquimalt and Aldermen Diggon and Charles E. Sanfield.

Much Work Restores City Lights

Street lights were back to normal last night for the first time since Saturday morning's fire in the main control plant on Swift Street.

Ald. F. O. Mulliner, chairman of the city's lighting committee, said yesterday that lighting crews have worked day and night to get the system operating again.

An emergency roof will have to be built to cover a burnt-out hole in the plant's roof and protect the equipment in case of bad weather, the alderman stated.

Insurance adjusters held an inquiry into the fire yesterday morning but no report was released.

Fraser Floods Slow Tourists

Floods in British Columbia, Washington and Oregon are costing this Province thousands of dollars a day in tourist revenue, officials of the British Columbia Travel Bureau indicated yesterday.

It is still too early, they said, to make any estimate of the overall reduction expected this year. The main flow of tourists travel does not start until July 1, when schools close, and officials are hopeful that effects of the flood may have diminished sufficiently by that time to bring an almost normal flow of tourists in the peak period.

Vancouver Island, being virtually the only part of the Province completely free of flood damage, may obtain a greater than normal share of the Provincial tourist trade.

Besides the floods in British Columbia, inundation of roads in Washington and Oregon is keeping many tourists out of the Province.

STUDENT-SOLDIERS

Some high school students here in army reserve units have been called out of school to help fight the Fraser Valley floods.

J. F. K. English, municipal inspector, said no arrangements have been made in case the students miss the examinations or classes but "every consideration" will be given and the students will get special help on their return if necessary.

Acting Mayor Begins Duties

Colonist Photo

THERE was new face at mayor's desk at City Hall yesterday. Ald. Dr. J. D. Hunter appointed as acting mayor started his new duties and is shown hard at work during first day. Dr. Hunter will be acting mayor in the absence of Mayor Percy E. George who is not expected to be back until next week and also is scheduled to leave again for a conference in Halifax June 18. Mayor George is resting at home after short time in hospital. It will be Acting Mayor J. D. Hunter until Mayor George gets back from Halifax.

Flood Emergency Fund Climbing Toward Goal

British Columbia Government's $100,000 cheque for immediate relief of flood victims was signed yesterday and will be forwarded to the relief committee today, Finance Minister Herbert Anscomb announced following a Cabinet meeting yesterday.

Mr. Anscomb said the Government had not been able to make even the roughest estimate of flood damage in the province.

Meanwhile, Victoria collections for British Columbia Flood Emergency Fund passed the $55,000 mark yesterday and climbed toward the area's first objective of $100,000.

The total does not include sums remitted direct to Vancouver by Victoria firms and individuals, said E. P. Foe, publicity officer of the fund here.

TOTAL NOT KNOWN

"We are meeting friendly co-operation on all sides, but there has been some difficulty in co-ordinating the Victoria total," he added.

Still to be tallied are payroll deductions, likely to be paid in about June 15. King's Birthday pay contributions from H.M.C. Dockyard employees, a Royal Canadian Navy fund, and contributions from several other sources.

Merchants are responding to the call to give advertising space.

Donations of $1,190 at City Hall yesterday brought the total there to $2,541. Included in this sum are personal donations from aldermen amounting to $500. City Council voted $15,000 to the fund. To this will be added an estimated $,00 saved by cancellation of a scheduled journey of Mayor Percy E. George and aldermen to Portland Rose Festival.

VETERANS HELP

Oak Bay's contribution has passed the $4,000 mark, A. D. Findlay, municipal clerk and treasurer, announced. The council allotted $3,000 from municipal funds and collected more than $1,000 from the public.

Donations may be mailed or taken to the Municipal Hall.

Victoria city police department's around the clock collection has netted more than $200, Arthur Rudge, officer in charge of collections, reported yesterday. Members of the department have given more than $100, and the remainder has come from public donations.

The city police charge office is offering a 24-hour service to persons who wish to contribute.

Once-homeless veterans who found needed help are now proving their own generosity, according to reports from Citizens Rehabilitation Council. The council yesterday reported total flood donations of $265 from residents of Macaulay and Gordon Head camps and War Amputations Association.

The fund is still open.

BEEKEEPERS TO MEET

Next meeting of the Vancouver Island Beekeepers' Association will be held today at 8 p.m. in Prince Robert House.

Floods Delay Work Planned On V.I. Roads

Mainland floods will delay work on Vancouver Island roads this Summer, Works Minister E. C. Carson said yesterday.

Key personnel have been engaged in flooded areas for the past two weeks and may be tied up for a considerable time with the gigantic [illegible] stated.

Every effort will be made to get work started as soon as possible, he indicated, but rehabilitation would have first call on available personnel.

Main project for Vancouver Island this summer is the completion of an 18-mile stretch of the Island Highway through Duncan to Ladysmith.

In the Victoria area two surveys were under way—one to find a route for a high-speed express highway to Patricia Bay and the second to plan a new entrance into Victoria from the Island Highway.

It is expected these two projects will be indefinitely delayed because of the flood problem.

Speech Ability Held Vital To Individual

Many a man has missed great opportunities in life because he has not been able to speak for himself.

This was the essence of an address presented by Ralph C. Smedley, founder of Toastmasters' International, to the Kiwanis Club yesterday at the Empress Hotel.

In stressing the importance of a person being able to speak for himself to individuals and groups, Mr. Smedley said "civilization has grown and progressed through an exchange of ideas."

The main reason most people refrained from public speaking, he continued, was because of lack of confidence. "They're just plain scared."

"Any man who makes his first speech or talk before a group will have overcome a great handicap. He will have accomplished a significant victory."

Members of the Toastmaster organization were trained to speak to public groups with a simple and direct approach. They were taught to speak to a large group as though that group was a single person.

"Every man has at least one good speech in him," Mr. Smedley continued. "Every man has at least one idea he would like to share with others."

It was important for democracies of the world to "sell" their ideas of freedom and self expression to other countries of the world. "In that way we can help them to help themselves."

"Speak for yourself," Mr. Smedley concluded, "and be sure that what you say reflects the very best in you."

The C.C.F. Makes It Three in a Row

THE Mackenzie King Administration is hardly likely to be encouraged by the three Federal by-elections held across Canada between May 31 and yesterday. C.C.F. candidates won all three seats; two from the Government side of the House of Commons and one from the Progressive Conservatives. Following a decisive win in Yale last month, the Socialist group took the double-header in the Ontario riding at Oshawa and in Vancouver Centre. Nor was the voting even close in the three-cornered contests.

The seat vacated by Hon. Ian Mackenzie on his elevation to the Senate was conceded to Rodney Young, C.C.F. nominee in Vancouver Centre; with Ralph O. Campney, Liberal, in second place; and Lyle Jestley, Progressive Conservative, trailing. Similarly in the Ontario riding, Arthur Williams, C.C.F., was conceded elected; with W. H. Gifford, Liberal, in second place; and Mayor Frank McCallum, Progressive Conservative, of Oshawa, third. The election returns were decisive, and there will be few alibis.

The triple result, while a direct rebuff to the Government, will not afford much comfort to the Progressive Conservative Party; still smarting from the defeat in Yale riding, a traditionally Conservative seat while in the keeping of the Hon. Grote Stirling, who retired recently. The three Socialist victories will not pass unnoticed in the House of Commons, affecting the Government's majority there. Taken together they may be interpreted in some quarters as shadows on the wall. By-elections, however, are always held in protest weather.

Czecho-Slovakia Now Puppet State in Soviet Union

THE resignation of President Eduard Benes, the last link with the independent Czecho-Slovakian state founded in 1918 by Dr. Thomas Masaryk, will be understood by the world to have taken place under pressure and to mark in itself the submergence of free thought and political liberty in that unhappy country now wholly under Russian domination. The act itself was foreshadowed by Communist reports of Benes' ill-health after the Gottwald Cabinet took office.

Since the Communist coup the same pattern has been divulged as in other border lands under the eye of the Red Army. Liberal thinkers have been hounded out of the country. Mock trials have disposed of men who would not surrender or flee. "Suicide" has claimed not a few officials of note, some in former Government ranks. Escapes by plane and otherwise to the outside world have called up the image of a hunted people in a haunted land.

President Benes' removal, for it is just that, is the final act. Ill and exhausted as he no doubt has every reason to be, he is still a world figure. His refusal to sign the Moscow-dictated constitution leaves him his honor, and that is probably more to him than life itself. The free world will understand, and add Czecho-Slovakia now to the list of puppet states wherein the strings are pulled by the Kremlin.

Canada Is No Place for Comic Opera Duels

THERE is a comic opera touch to the reports of Latin America diplomats in Ottawa exchanging insults and challenges. Talk of honor and duels is something new in official Canada. One might have thought the bracing air of this country would have tempered such volatile virtuosity, but seemingly not.

The details of the dispute are not clear, although no doubt they are sizzling the cables between here, the Argentine and the Dominican Republic. Apparently protocol was offended at some reception, and honor leaped flaming to the insult. Among grown men it all seems very childish, even allowing for the intemperate zones from which the diplomats in question come.

Diplomacy has changed nowadays. Time was when representatives served their countries in foreign capitals with a minimum of fuss. They stuck to their knitting. Of late it has looked as though some of them would like to entangle Canadian subjects in their ball of wool, contrary to accepted practice. The Latin American disharmony is of another nature, but it illustrates the theme.

The disputants should be reminded that duels and the like are quite out of place in Canada. It might even be suggested to their respective governments that they should be recalled so they might cool off before the farce grows serious.

Keeping the Municipalities Guessing

BY its continued delay in bringing into effect the three per cent retail sales tax approved by the Legislature last session the Provincial Government is adding to the financial quandary of the municipalities. When the measure was before the House they were given to believe that it would become operative on May 15.

The act, only slightly disguised as a "Social Security and Municipal Aid Tax Act," was the Government's major gesture of recognition of the plight of the cities and districts. Unpalatable as the tax may be, it was the will of the majority of the Legislature nevertheless—influenced largely by the assurance that one-third of the revenue would go to the municipalities. Many of them are now facing serious new problems arising out of the floods.

It is an injustice to keep them guessing like this as to when their sales tax revenues will begin. No local government can plan ahead when it does not know how much money it will have to work with. Latest unconfirmed reports have it that the tax may be levied on July 1, a month and a half later than the anticipated date, which means that the municipalities have lost more than $575,000 of promised revenue essential for the maintenance of services.

Thinking Aloud

"... of shoes—and ships—and sealing wax—of cabbages and kings."

By TOM TAYLOR

A CORRESPONDENT writes disdainfully about the present car-driving tests, which he thinks are too innocuous to be any good. His opinion was recently strengthened, he says, when a lady of his acquaintance drove up to his door in a brand new car and then could not turn around!

He suggests that each beginner, after passing certain tests should have a large letter "L" stuck on the windshield, and that it should remain there until he or she had become a journeyman driver.

In the meantime, I suppose, this class of driver would still be a menace on the streets while picking up experience.

More to the point would be an annual renewal of the motorist's initial examination.

It is a complete absurdity that once a driver always a driver. You could lose both your arms and still get a licence for all that provincial authorities care. All you need to do is to send the price by mail and back comes a licence plate, just because in some distant past you once passed a driver's test.

The assumption that a person is necessarily as good a driver today as he always was is a foolish fallacy, and one that probably contributes greatly to highway accidents. It is like assuming that because the doctor pronounced you healthy at forty you are still in the same condition at fifty.

Yet that is the basis upon which the right to sit behind the wheel of an automobile is perpetuated. You may have secured a licence when the present tests were initiated eight or nine years ago, in the interval have developed failing eyesight, palpitation, nervous prostration or any one of a hundred ailments that unfit you for driving, and still you are free to roam the highways in control of a vehicle capable of causing death.

There is perhaps nothing more idiotic than the ease with which a person can renew a driving licence.

* * * * *

The hospitalization of Mayor Percy George is an illustration of how we work a good public man to a sick bed. Never before were elected officials kept with their noses to the grindstone as they are today.

I don't suppose the Mayor, for example, is able to spend one night at home in twenty. Life for him must be a constant round of banquets and bazaars, making speeches and replying to others, terribly boring and terribly wearing on the nerves. No function is deemed complete without the presence of the Mayor.

And yet he has a full day's work to do at the City Hall, even as you and I have elsewhere.

Public men can't afford to refuse the myriad of invitations that come their way; if they do some group is sure to be offended, and they depend on general good will to be re-elected. It should be up to organizations to be sparing in their requests, and to think twice before they demand a personal appearance.

People often complain that politics, civic, provincial or Dominion, do not attract many of the most capable men in their midst. The answer is not far to seek. The burdens of office sometimes become unbearable, and the thanks few and far between.

The cure is in our own hands, and it is that we should not expect a public man to work himself to death on our account. We've no right to assume that we should enjoy an eight-hour day and a five-day week while he is compelled to ruin his health spending perhaps twelve to fifteen hours in our service day in and day out.

A recent article in (I think) The Reader's Digest suggested that the forthcoming Olympic Games be called off, the idea being that these Olympiads cause international bickering and nothing much else.

It is true that national rivalry, and sometimes bad temper, reaches a peak in Olympic stadiums, but some of this is due to the emphasis placed on disagreements. For every dispute there are a score of friendly incidents that never make the headlines, and undoubtedly athletes from different countries return home with many pleasant memories.

In any case, if people can't learn to agree on a sporting field there is small hope they will avoid a battlefield, so the Games are worthwhile as a trial ground.

All this is by way of adding this column's congratulations to Archie McKinnon, Victoria's inimitable swimming coach, on his selection as the mentor of this country's Olympic swimming team. The Y.M.C.A. athletic instructor is certainly the man for the job.

In his case there will be no spurious protest when the Olympic judges come to name the winners. Archie's sportsmanship is just as marked as his ability to produce good athletes, and he should be an example for other coaches if they really want to stay out of the wrong kind of headlines.

Rolling Back Prices

By Austin F. Cross in The Labor Review

A LOT of people are getting mixed up these days about the price of things. They get confused as between price, and what people pay. Or, if you like, they read what a thing "costs," then find it doesn't cost that at all. They hear a thing is "worth" so much, find that it is not worth anything like that.

Take butter: You read that butter is worth 69 cents a pound. But during the butter shortage you could not get it for $1 a pound. Actually, it probably was worth as much as $1.25 on the black market. So to say butter was worth 69 cents, then to announce there was no butter, did not indicate cost or price at all. Actually, if you wanted butter you had to scurry around, and if you wanted to be sure, then the cost was a dollar or better.

We are told that the pound is worth $4 these days. Compare it with what it will buy, and you find out that the pound sterling has dropped to $2. We are told that he franc has a "valeur" of so many to the dollar. This is sheer nonsense. In terms of what it will buy, it is much lower than that.

When people talk about rolling back prices, let us see what they mean. They want to cut prices 10 per cent, they say. Ultimately, that means that if everything is cut 10 per cent, the woman's husband has his salary cut 10 per cent. If that is cut 10 per cent, then the wife's allowance is cut 10 per cent.

"But," she screams, "I can hardly get by on what I get now; I cannot stand a 10 per cent cut."

"Precisely, madam," we can answer. "What you then mean is that you want to keep what you get at the same price, but you want what you buy reduced 10 per cent. You, madam, want to be 10 per cent better than anybody else."

The lady will not admit it, but basically this is so.

We have a lot of sloppy thinking about this kind of economics. People want other things cut, but not their salaries. When you roll back prices, you stop at their front door.

It means that people want a 10 per cent cut in what they buy, but the 10 per cent not cut in what they have to sell.

By having to sell, we mean their services, such as a lawyer, a worker, or anybody else, from paperhanger to cook, from architect to cabinet minister. They all have services to sell. So if they sell for the same price, and buy for 10 per cent less, you have economics strictly out of the funny papers, or maybe Alice in Wonderland.

The truth of the matter is that our old Siamese Twins, supply and demand, are still around. Here's how simple it is: if you have nine pounds of butter and 11 customers, you have inflation. If nine pounds of butter and 20 customers, you are close to a black market. If you have 11 pounds of butter and nine customers, you have a depression. If you have 20 pounds of butter and nine customers, you are getting close to bankruptcy. The trick is to have ten pounds of butter for ten customers. It is as simple as that.

Nor can the Government step in and roll back prices. If you get prices controlled, you have subsidies, and you pay for your coffee out of two pockets, instead of one. The first price is the subsidized price at the grocery store. The second price is on your income tax.

Not ten Paul Martins nor 20 Ralph Maybanks can reduce prices by any parliamentary probe. Prime Minister King knew that when he threw the whole matter before the committee. Prices are pretty close to what people will pay, and people are paying according to supply and demand.

You cannot legislate a country into prosperity, you cannot persecute a people into lower prices. No law can make butter grow where it doesn't grow, no legislation can make plenty out of scarcity. You can make a silk purse out of a sow's ear more easily than you can pass a statute so that everybody pays for everything what they think they ought to pay.

Once upon a time, butter was so plentiful in Saskatchewan that farmers sold it to Winnipeg soap manufacturers at ten cents a pound. You could not then pass laws to make the cows stop giving cream.

On February 23, 1909, J. A. D. McCurdy piloted his aircraft Silver Dart for half a mile over the ice at Baddeck Bay, Nova Scotia. His flight was not only the first in Canada, but also the first in the British Empire. McCurdy, the 21st person in the world to fly an airplane, traveled at an altitude of 30 feet at 40 miles an hour.

Refuelling in Flight

By E. C. SHEPHERD

Aviation Expert, London Sunday Times (North American Newspaper Alliance)

LONDON.—Two developments that should prove of importance to British commercial air transport currently are being carried a stage further. One is the gas-turbine propeller combination, destined for use in several new British airliners. The other is the system of refueling in the air, now likely to be tried for the first time in commercial operation. The "turbo-prop" is being tried on regular service of Britain's Royal Air Force Transport Command. Flight refueling will probably be tried on the services of British South American Airways.

The first set of trials will give us a fair idea as to whether we can afford to use turbo-props in commercial air transport. The second will show how far the claims made for flight refueling, particularly in the economic sense, are borne out in practice.

The critics of the turbo-prop have said that it will consume too much fuel and will cost too much to maintain. Those who doubt the value of flight refueling have said there can be no guarantee that the tanker will find the liner in thick weather.

R.A.F. Transport Command now has on its regular freight run to the Middle East an Avro Lincoln bomber with two Bristol Theseus gas turbines as the outboard engines. It will be engaged on trips to the East during the next few months and may be sent as far east as Singapore, so that the gas turbines can be tried in the greatest variety of weather and temperature.

Gas-turbine propeller combinations give a small saving in weight and a big saving in size and, therefore, in drag, as compared with the piston engine. If this means much better performance, the higher consumption rate may be fully compensated. Unfortunately it will still remain an awkward factor when aircraft have to be kept waiting, sometimes for as much as two hours, for a turn to land in foggy weather. The engine designers are seeking to improve the consumption rate.

The life of turbine blades will have a serious bearing on maintenance costs until they can be produced more cheaply, or unless they are shown to suffer less in commercial operation than in the jet-propulsion fighters of the R.A.F. In these aircraft some blade replacements are usually necessary after about 120 hours. Until recently the blades cost $16 each and they still cost more than $15 each. Since there may be 200 blades in a turbine, the question of durability is important.

A series of flight refueling tests on the run between London and Bermuda was undertaken over a period of three months last year and a similar series on the route between London and Montreal has just been completed. In both sets, the tanker is reported to have missed the liner once. In one instance a radar fault is believed to have been responsible; in the other, the liner was probably not in the position where she reported herself to be. These may also be thought the kind of slip that can be eliminated with practice.

It Isn't So Easy

(Editorial in Winnipeg Tribune)

ONE of the sages remarked that the trouble with some people is not that they don't know anything, but that they know so many things that aren't so. The truth of this aphorism is beginning to dawn on bigwigs in the British Labor Party.

Speaking recently to a large audience, Emmanuel Shinwell, War Secretary of the British Government, said: "There was far too little detailed preparation in formulation of schemes of nationalization, and in consequence we have found ourselves with legislation that had to be completed without the necessary blueprints upon which we could have proceeded much more expeditiously in the right direction.

"We must be extremely careful that these difficulties do not ultimately succeed in destroying our whole conception, and making it impossible to proceed further in the direction of nationalization."

Perhaps the C.C.F. planners, who seem to know everything about everything, had better go read another book.

Two men in a lighthouse saw a small boat being rowed towards it. About half a mile away it began to sink, so one of the men went out to the rescue.

When the rescued man was in the lighthouse he told the men it was a good job they had saved him because he had come to see them about their income tax.

Moon Echoes

A FLICKER of blue light on a screen, and a rattle of morse in a loudspeaker, told three scientists at Hornsby, near Sydney, that they had succeeded in bouncing a radio signal off the moon.

The experiment—the first successful attempt in Australia—was carried out by the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research.

It was explained that the experiments were not directed at finding out anything special about the moon. They were part of a planned research program to find out more about propagation of radio waves.

Radio Australia, using radar on a frequency of 17,800,000 vibrations a second, transmitted the signals 238,000 miles to the moon. Two and a half seconds later the scientists heard back the signal they had sent out, weak, but unmistakable.

50 YEARS AGO—John Day, proprietor of the Esquimalt Hotel, has, according to a letter received from a relative in Malaga, Spain, fallen heir to a fortune through the death of a close relation. Mr. Day . . . will shortly leave for Spain to look after his interests, despite the war.

85 YEARS AGO—Mr. Robert Stevenson is engaged in the commendable attempt to establish a post office on Williams Creek in connection with the Gold Escort.

Shuffle in Transport Board May Be Answer to Provinces

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP)—A realignment in the setup of the Board of Transport Commissioners, announced today by Prime Minister King, touched off reports that this was the Government's answer to provincial demands for a Royal Commission on railways.

In reconstituting the board for "heavy additional duties and responsibilities," Mr King told the Commons it will be headed in the future by an Exchequer Court judge instead of by a straight Government appointee.

Mr. Justice M B Archibald of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia, former National War Labor Board chairman, will be the first judicial chairman of the six-man board that is the regulatory body for the railroads. He will be appointed to the Exchequer Court to qualify him for his new job.

He will succeed 72-year-old J A Cross, who has turned in his resignation as chief commissioner some two years in advance of the 1950 expiration of his term.

The Prime Minister's announcement of impending legislation to implement these moves came after a fortnight of persistent but unconfirmed rumors that he planned a reorganization of the board rather than a Royal Commission on railways to meet provincial demands on the railway situation.

These demands stemmed from the commissioners' long inquiry into railway freight rates that culminated in late March with the award of a general 21 per cent increase in rates for the railways.

Seven Premiers called on the Cabinet in April to set aside the 21 per cent award, meet any temporary railway financial needs with subsidies and order a Royal Commission investigation of the whole railway problem.

Must Prevent Credit Excess Speaker Says

CALGARY, June 8 (CP).—Prevention of consumer credit excesses lies in voluntary control by credit men rather than by government control, W. H. Baldwin, vice-president of General Motors Acceptance Corporation, New York, said at the International Credit conference today.

Speaking on the use and abuse of consumer credit before more than 1,000 delegates from Canada, the United States and Alaska, Mr. Baldwin said credit excesses were caused by inflationary situations and by abnormal production, merchandising or price pressures.

Mr. Baldwin said there was no excuse for abuse of consumer credit, especially in the present inflationary period and thought abuses could be prevented by voluntary control if proper information were available to guide credit men and if restraint were used and expediency disavowed by them.

"If we in consumer credit are to enjoy continued economic freedom in conducting our affairs, we must exercise the responsibility that goes with that freedom," he said.

Earlier today, Capt. A. A. Nicholson, of New York, assistant to the vice-president of the Texas Company, said faith in people was a vital necessity in the world today if business is to progress. He termed Canada as the "last great frontier in the world."

Seats Offered To Aid Drew

TORONTO, June 8 (CP).—Premier Drew, defeated in his home riding despite the re-election of his government, will continue to lead the Progressive Conservative Party in Ontario, it was reported today.

A by-election will be necessary to provide him with a seat in the legislature. Two Progressive Conservatives have offered to step aside for the Premier.

Rev. M. C. Davies made that offer last night shortly after he was re-elected in Windsor-Walkerville. Agriculture Minister Kennedy, swept back into office by Peel voters with a 4,720 plurality, also offered to step down.

Alderman Faces Assault Charge

TORONTO, June 8 (CP).—Alderman Charles Sims, agent for A. A. McLeod, Labor-Progressive candidate who was elected in Toronto Bellwoods yesterday, today was charged with common assault as a result of an altercation in a polling booth.

Police said Charles Montgomery, special constable at the polling subdivision, was shoved against a stairway and suffered rib injuries.

Would Let Aliens Into U.S. Army

WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—The Senate voted today to let the United States army take in 25,000 aliens.

The 43 to 33 vote put the permission into the two-year draft bill. Senator Cabot Lodge (Rep., Mass.), sponsored it.

Under Lodge's plan, the personnel would be eligible for citizenship after five years of service.

He said the group would not be formed into a "foreign legion," but would be spread through the army for service.

Mennonites Selling Out For Paraguay

WINNIPEG, June 8 (CP).—After 75 years in Canada, Mennonites from Niverville, 20 miles south of Winnipeg, are loading big wooden crates for Villa Roca, Paraguay. They're moving because they feel too strongly the worldly approach of civilization.

The Niverville Mennonites are some of 1,500 Mennonites from Manitoba who are leaving their farms for the trek to South America, where once again they will pioneer free from the encroachments of the modern age.

In Paraguay they will live in tents before they can clear the heavy forests 85 miles southeast of Villa Roca. They will raise sugar and cotton instead of wheat and barley. They'll use oxen instead of tractors.

But they constitute just a small percentage of Manitoba's Mennonites, reported to number 80,000.

They've sold their farms and implements by auction. Most farms have been bought by Mennonites from other districts. With them they'll take heavy duty wagons, small ploughs, buggies, household effects and some seed.

In the group will be six ministers.

The fare is $400 a person, and in one group of 750 from Eastern Manitoba, $41,000 has been subscribed to take care of needy Mennonites.

They claim they've no quarrel with the Canadian Government. It's simply that they want to live "as the Bible taught us." In 1873 the Government guaranteed Mennonite people in Canada entire exemption from military service as a condition of their settlement. War service is contrary to their religious beliefs.

Prices Group Examines Textile Firms

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP).—The Commons Prices Committee, now at least three days ahead of its expected schedule on the textile prices probe, today hurried through examination of three more withnesses and broke up a half-hour early.

The committee now has completed its investigation into cotton textile prices. It will turn tomorrow to silk, a phase of the inquiry expected by committee officials to be short and then to woollens.

Before it began, leading committee members thought the textile inquiry would take a month, which would have meant its completion about the time the Commons rises. It now appears that the textile probe will be completed in about ten days.

If the Government decides the committee's life should continue beyond its present investigation it has several subjects to pick from: binder twine, feed grains, building materials.

Examination of G. Blair Gordon, president of Dominion Textile Co. Ltd., began last week and was completed this morning. He was followed by Edward Fox, president of Canadian Cottons Ltd., who appeared on the witness stand for 55 minutes and was followed by William J. Whitehead, managing director of Wabasso Cotton Co., Ltd. Mr. Whitehead's examination on the affairs of his company occupied 45 minutes.

Mr. Whitehead said his firm had so much trouble trying to work a Saturday afternoon shift in Three Rivers, Que., that it gave up the attempt after the war. Efficiency of workers in their operation of machines had dropped from a wartime average of 93 per cent of the machine's potential output to between 70 and 80 per cent, mainly due to inexperienced help.

Absenteeism, no problem before the war, now averaged slightly more than 6 per cent, but the efficiency of workers was about same as before.

Teachers Seeking Right to Office

VANCOUVER, June 8 (CP).—Fight to gain teachers the right to hold municipal office will be carried before the forthcoming convention of Union of British Columbia Municipalities by the British Columbia Teachers' Federation.

The federation executive here today pointed out that Trail Municipal Council and Cranbrook School Board already have gone on record favoring legislation enabling teachers to hold such offices.

French Security Necessary For Future European Peace

—Interpreting the News—

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
A.P. News Analyst

After several days during which opponents have been permitted to expend their steam, publication of the security guarantees in the Tri-Power Plan for Germany appears to have turned the trick in France, ... hanging in the balance.

Cabinet approval sends the proposal to the Chamber of Deputies with the full strength of the Government behind it, and observers were predicting acceptance before the week-end.

On its face, the Allied agreement to continue military occupation of Germany "until the peace of Europe is assured" would seem to be committing the Allies for a long, long time. A realistic reading of history, coupled with knowledge of the Communist ambition for world rule, makes an assured peace for Europe seem like something to be attained only in a dream world.

But all that the phrase really means is that Western Europe shall be kept free from aggression by Germany, or by anyone acting through Germany, as long as present circumstances continue.

American observers will tell frankly that, of all the points where United States and Russian policies are in conflict, the one in Germany is by far the most dangerous. Not only because Germany is essential to the success of the Marshall Plan, but because if Germany fell to Soviets, all Europe could not be far behind.

That is why Britain and America have been at such pains to assure France's security, short of a direct and automatic military alliance to which the United States authorities do not believe the American people would consent.

Meanwhile they are striving for a Western German Government which can begin the process of bringing the German people back into the community of Western nations.

ATTENDS WEDDING

LONDON, June 8 (AP) — Princess Margaret attended a wedding today—her first public appearance since she recovered from a recent case of measles.

Denies Support Of Communists

REGINA, June 8 (CP).—Nelson Clarke, Saskatchewan Labor Progressive party leader, today denied Premier T. C. Douglas' charge that two Communists canvassed Melville Federal constituency on behalf of Agriculture Minister Gardiner during the 1945 Federal election.

"At no time, during the 1945 election did representatives of the Labor-Progressive party undertake any electioneering on behalf of Mr. Gardiner," Mr. Clarke said in a statement.

"Mr. Douglas is also quite wrong in stating that advertisements supporting the Liberal cause were inserted in the press by the Labor-Progressive party in 1945."

Welfare Head Urges Pension

HAMILTON, June 8 (CP) — A partial pension earlier than at the old-age pension age was suggested today to the public welfare division of the Canadian Welfare Council by J. I. Chambers, director of welfare for Vancouver.

He said this would permit the older person to contribute to society for a longer period.

The division saw a cross-country picture of Canada's old-age problems during the day—the final session of the C.W.C.'s annual meeting. Attending were representatives of provincial and municipal welfare departments from coast to coast, as well as delegates to the Canadian conference on social work.

In Mr. Chambers' opinion the Government would have to subsidize all housing units—"and soon." He said old-age pensioners found it "completely" impossible to pay for housing accommodation from their benefits.

David Chambers of Regina noted that in his province all old-age pensioners were entitled to free medical services.

Says Veterans Get By-Passed

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP).—A contention that attempts to by-pass preference in civil service employment for overseas veterans are "becoming too prevalent" was aired today before the Commons committee on Veterans Affairs.

It came from C. H. Hope, vice-president of the Dominion Civil Servants War Veterans Association.

Mr. Hope asked that the statutory provisions for job preference be "strictly adhered to" and be extended to cover all Government employment, including boards and Crown companies.

...Oddities...

CLEVELAND, June 8 (AP).—Jail life was getting dull, so Salvatore C. Laducca ordered some reading material.

But when Judge Frank J. Merrick saw the titles of Laducca's books he said "No."

The titles: "The Greatest Prison Breaks of All Times," "Big Shot Gangsters—Their Careers, Crimes and Deaths," "The Ten Most Terrible Crimes of All Time," "How Detectives Catch Crooks," and "Mysteries of Magic, Mind Reading and Hypnotism."

LOS ANGELES, June 8—(AP).—A new technique in foiling bank holdups was demonstrated yesterday by Ann Hemstead, bank teller.

A man handed her a note: "Hand over the 10's and 20's and act as though you were counting the money. This is a stick-up."

She looked up, saw a gun and fainted. The robber, baffled, ran out empty-handed.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., June 8 (AP).—Stockholders of a railroad that doesn't run a train held their annual meeting today and elected directors of the Rochester & Genesee Valley Railroad.

The company, organized in 1851 with a 200-year franchise, hasn't functioned since 1871 when it leased the line to the Erie Railroad.

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP).—The old school tie was strong with Alban Tracey, Ottawa architect who died here May 28. His will today disclosed a trust fund of $1,000 to be used to provide a hamper of No. 1 MacIntosh apples each Hallowe'en and Christmas for children of No. 8 Public School at South March, Ont., 18 miles west of here. Remainder of the fund will be for proficiency prizes at the school.

Guards to Troop Color Before London Throngs

LONDON, June 8 (Reuters).—Famous British Guards Regiments magnificent in scarlet, white and black uniforms, will provide London with its greatest show of the year Thursday when tens of thousands will throng to see the traditional ceremony of trooping the color.

This year, for the first time since the war, the regiments will wear full dress.

When the ceremony was revived last year, after its wartime lapse, the Guardsmen were wearing their dull khaki uniforms in keeping with Britain's austerity restrictions.

But Thursday the wheeling columns, in their scarlet tunics and black bearskins, will march to the Horse Guards parade, fronting Saint James Park, which separates Buckingham Palace and Whitehall. There they will draw up beside the swinging plaids of the Scots pipers and the green of the Irish Guards.

"Trooping the Color" is the term for saluting by beat of drum the flag or "color" of a regiment.

From the earliest days it has been the custom for men in action to rally round some prominent object which was easily recognizable—a pole with a truss of hay tied to it or later the famous Roman Eagles. Knights in the Middle Ages rode into battle with their personal banner and, as many regiments were originally formed as the personal bodyguard of some noble, it became the custom for the banner to be used as a regimental symbol.

The British army has not used its colors in action since two officers lost their lives in 1879 saving their colors from the Zulus, but the ceremony of escorting the colors has remained.

MISS KIT CARSON

An engagement of interest is announced by Mr. and Mrs S. Carson of Winnipeg, Man., of their only daughter, Hazel Irene (Kit), to Petty Officer Allan Wilfred Tassell, son of Mr W. H. Tassell, Kelowna, B.C., and Mrs. E. P. Hall of Vancouver. The wedding will take place at St. John's Anglican Church on June 26 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. J.H. East President Of B.C. Women's Institutes

Mrs. J H East, of Keremeos, was elected president of the British Columbia Women's Institutes at the ninth biennial convention of the organization held at the University of British Columbia last week. Other officers elected were Mrs. R W Chalmers of Thrums, vice-president, Mrs. R Doe, Salmon Arm, secretary-treasurer, and directors Mrs Chalmers, Mrs. E. Olover, Lake Hill, and Mrs A A Shaw.

This statement was included by Mrs. R W Mercer, Lake Hill president, in her report, as delegate, given at the June meeting of her Institute, Monday afternoon.

Also specially mentioned in the report was the fact that first, second and third places respectively, in the Rural Housing Contest, were won by Hazelmere Women's Institute ($125), Kalamalka ($75), and Beresford ($50).

Dr. MacKenzie, president of the University, and Dr. O. Shrum director of University Extension, had welcomed the 200 delegates and members at the opening session, June 1. Other special speakers during the three days were Dr J. B. Munro, M.B.E. deputy minister of agriculture, Dr. J. P Booth, associate director of marketing, Hon. Frank Putman, Minister of Agriculture, Miss Amy Leigh, director of social welfare, Miss Charlotte Black, professor of home economics at the University; H. L. Campbell, assistant superintendent of education, and Prof. R Young, of the University, who presented the housing contest prizes.

The convention passed a resolution of deep sympathy to the British Columbia flood sufferers, many of whom were Institute members, and delegates unanimously agreed to go back to their respective institutes and call for material assistance of funds and clothing.

Birthday congratulations and good wishes went from the convention to Mrs Alfred Watt, of Victoria, honorary president of the Associated Countrywomen of the World, who had sent a message expressing her regret at being unable to attend the sessions.

The report concluded with detailed coverage of the numerous resolutions discussed by the convention. Mrs. E Olover and Mrs K Massey moved the hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Mercer for her comprehensive statement.

At Monday's meeting plans were advanced for the tea and sale of sun-suits, home cooking and candy, to take place at the Lake Hill Institute rooms Wednesday, June 16, at 2:30 p.m. Receipts from this will to to the flood fund. Mrs. A. Moffatt is general convener, Mrs. K. Massey, tea, Mrs. R. Noble, home cooking.

The meeting passed a resolution expressing hearty appreciation of the recent action of the Canadian Pacific Railway in introducing in their West Coast passenger ships original water-color paintings of British Columbia subjects by three Vancouver Island artists, Edward Goodall, Frank Taylor, and Archie Fairbairn.

Mrs. H. C. Hanington and Mrs H. Yarwood were welcomed as guests, and the tea-hostesses, Mrs A. B Moffatt and Mrs. W. Carpenter, were congratulated on the red-white-and-blue flower motif used on the table in honor of the King's birthday.

Salt Spring Tag Day For Emergency Fund

A tag day held last Saturday to help with the Salt Spring Island objective of $5,000 for the British Columbia Emergency Flood Fund realized $111.90.

Those tagging at Fulford were Betty Fraser and Sylvia Jackson, and at Ganges, Mrs. A. B Elliott, Judy and Wendy Fanning, Kathleen and Clair Devine and Lin Young.

Fly to Seattle For Honeymoon

At the Church of Our Lord on Saturday evening, Rev Donald L. Gordon solemnized the marriage of Nancy Gertrude 'Bunty' youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs. H H Pearce 646 Langford Street, to Craig Fergusson, elder son of Mr and Mrs. W Fergusson of Vancouver. Baskets of stocks pyrethrum and pink carnations formed the setting for the service.

The pretty bride, given away by her father was gowned in white satin fashioned with off-shoulder neck finished with lace bertha collar and net yoke, lily-point sleeves and crinoline skirt caught at the front hemline to show a ruffled lace underskirt. Her embroidered net veil was held under a pearl coronet. Red roses and gardenias showered with sweet peas composed her bouquet and she wore a double strand of pearls.

As matron of honor Mrs. William O'Keefe wore turquoise net with lace bodice, and Miss Helen McNaught, bridesmaid, was gowned in peach crepe with draped effect in the skirt. Both wore bandeaux of flowers in their hair and carried pink carnations and blue iris.

The best man was Mr Robert Stewart and ushering were Mr Douglas Pearce brother of the bride, and Mr William O'Keefe.

The reception was held in Terry's roseroom where Mrs. Pearce and Mrs O. McDonald, aunt of the groom, in the absence of his mother due to illness, received with the young couple. A four-tiered cake decorated by Mrs. George Foster, centred the decorated table. The toast was given by Mr. James Dunlop.

Leaving for Vancouver to fly to Seattle for their honeymoon, the bride wore a grey gabardine suit with robin's egg blue topcoat, grey accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mr and Mrs Fergusson will make their home in Victoria.

Dimery Johnson (general convener). Mrs C. Moss is also a member of the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Trace Spend Honeymoon in U.S.A. and Banff

St. John's Church, decorated with baskets of snapdragons, stocks and pink peonies, was the scene of a wedding of wide interest on Saturday evening when Joyce Lucille eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs. T. S. Spilsbury, 2616 Shelbourne Street became the bride of Anthony Couch Trace, son of Mr W. P. Trace of this city, and the late Mrs Trace. Rev George Siddle performed the ceremony.

The bride, given away by her father was lovely in a gown of white satin with off-shoulder neck outlined with fine lace, the skirt finished with four rows of ruffled lace to give a crinoline effect. Her floor-length embroidered veil was held in place with gardenias at the temples. Red roses showered with lily-of-the-valley complemented her costume and her only ornament was a necklet of pearls, the groom's gift.

Attending the bride were Mrs. W. A MacLean, sister of the groom, matron of honor, in turquoise brocaded satin, Miss Jean Chambers and Miss Ivy Spilsbury, sister of the bride, bridesmaids, wearing identical satin frocks in the same turquoise shade. All wore net crown-shaped headdresses and mitts to match their gowns, and carried pastel sweet peas and violas.

Mr Eddie Raper was best man, and Mr W. Trace, Jr., brother of the groom, and Mr Evans Ross were ushers.

The reception was held in the Community Hall which was decorated with Summer flowers and wedding bells. A three-tiered cake centred the lace-covered table. Mr Toss Chambers gave the toast.

The honeymoon is being spent motoring through the United States to Banff, the bride choosing for her going-away costume a Chinese-red suit with midnight blue topcoat and accessories in grey and blue.

Mr and Mrs Trace will reside in Victoria.

Campbell River P.-T.A. Recital

CAMPBELL RIVER, June 8—More than 100 persons attended the regular meeting of the Campbell River P.-T.A. held in the high school recently when a delightful program was presented by pupils of Grade 1 and Miss L. Dwell as teacher.

The entertainment included recitations, songs and folk dancing by the youngsters. Those taking part included Barbara and Janet Bu..ton, Joy Vanstone, Larry Comm[illegible] Perkins and Maureen Nelson. Barry King acted as the capable little announcer.

Featured at the meeting was a variety art showing which consisted of 21 pen and ink etchings, water colors and lithographs by noted Canadian artists.

Plans were completed at the meeting for the P.-T.A. annual garden party to be held on June 10 at the home of Mrs. R. L. Haig-Brown. Mrs E. O. King will act as general convener.

It was agreed to send a donation to the British Columbia Emergency Flood Fund.

Mrs Haig-Brown, Mrs King, Mrs. J. Bloedel and Mrs. C. Watner of Willow Point were appointed as a committee to nominate candidates for the election which will be held next month.

Ex-King Michael To Wed Thursday

ATHENS, June 7 (AP). — Ex-King Michael of Romania and Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma arrived in Athens today and an announcement from the Royal Palace said they will be married Thursday.

The Greek air force band played the Romanian National Anthem as Michael and his bride-to-be stepped off a plane from Geneva into the embraces of King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece and of Queen Helen, Michael's mother

Michael was bareheaded and wore a light grey double-breasted suit. Anne also was in light grey and wore a white hat. A contingent of Palace Guard Evzones (mountain troops) was reviewed by Michael and King Paul, attired in a white admiral's uniform

A palace spokesman said Michael and Anne will spend the first four or five days of their honeymoon at the royal Summer palace at Tatoi, 17 miles north of Athens, after which they will leave Greece.

Ladysmith Auxiliary Helps Flood Victims

The sum of $50 was donated by the Women's Auxiliary of the Ladysmith General Hospital to the Flood Emergency Fund at a meeting held in the Nurses' Home on Wednesday.

Mrs Edwin James was appointed to act as president of the auxiliary for the remainder of the year. She replaces Mrs. P. Nixon who has resigned to take up residence at Courtenay.

To date, donations of $100 from Sharon Chapter No 4, Order of Eastern Star, and $50 from the United Mine Workers of America, have been received to aid in the purchase of a new sterilizer for the Ladysmith General Hospital

The treasurer's report was read and showed a balance of $503.89. Dance concessions for the month of May netted $95.60.

Auxiliary representatives will attend the next regional meeting which is to be held at Duncan on Wednesday, June 23

Conveners of dance concessions for the month of June will be Mrs. J V Dods, Mrs. G. B Willoughby, Mrs. J Hulme, Mrs. F. Tomlinson and Mrs D. S. Gourlay. Mrs. K. D. Gourlay will act as buyer.

P.-T. Council Plans Picnic

The Victoria and District Parent-Teacher Council will hold the annual picnic this year in Beacon Hill Park on Saturday, July 3. All members of local Parent-Teacher Associations and their families are invited to attend. A committee with Mr John Halstead, convener of recreation for the council, as chairman, is arranging for sports and other entertainment.

At the Theatres

ATLAS THEATRE Never the ones to overlook a good entertainment bet, Twentieth Century-Fox, whose musicals have put nostalgia into the status of big business, have returned to the "terrific Twenties" for another generous helping of the inspiration that made "Margie" one of the outstanding screen successes of recent years. Their current offering—"You Were Meant For Me," now at the Atlas Theatre—is said to surpass "Margie" in the sheer entertainment delight of laughs, songs and enthralling [illegible] that will never be forgotten

CAPITOL THEATRE One of the most spectacular sights in pre-war London was revived for the screen, at least during the filming of "An Ideal Husband," the new Twentieth Century-Fox release starring Paulette Goddard, which was photographed in color by Technicolor, and now at the Capitol Theatre. For Londoners as well as for visitors from the world over, the ceremonial parade through Hyde Park of the Royal Horse Guards, preceded by the mounted bandsmen, was a sight not to be missed.

ODEON THEATRE Barry Fitzgerald and the City of New York share starring honors in the late Mark Hellinger's final production, "The Naked City." Although it does not receive official billing New York plays a role of equal importance to that of Fitzgerald. The "co-starring" arrangement, however, constituted one of the most formidable projects ever attempted by a film producer. The extraordinary film is now at the Odeon Theatre

RIO THEATRE Mary McLeod Jimmy Lydon's girl friend in "Strange Illusion," now at the Rio Theatre, is cast for the fourth consecutive time as the girl to be "pursued" by the villain. In "Strange Illusion," it is Warren William, a champion in menace who does the pursuing. Sally Eilers, Regis Toomey and Charles Arnt are others in the sterling cast.

PLAZA THEATRE In "Lost Jungle" there are thrilling scenes of never to be forgotten action of kings of the jungle in mortal combat and hair-raising escapes by members of scouting parties who braved dangers to bring the film to the screen. "Lost Jungle" is now showing at the Plaza Theatre

ROYAL THEATRE The story of "Sitting Pretty," now at the Royal Theatre, is that of a reasonably successful young couple, Harry and Tacey King, whose recurring difficulties in finding baby-sitters for their three obstreperous offsprings, finally inspire them to advertise for a resident sitter. The result proves more than they bargained for as the ad is answered by a sophisticated gentleman, one Belvedere, who immediately takes over the entire household — completely, and with devastating results.

Recommend Federal Children's Bureau

HAMILTON, June 7 (CP). — The formation of a Federal children's bureau, to deal with such matters as adoption and juvenile immigration, has been recommended to the Dominion Government by the Canadian Welfare Council, delegates attending the C W C annual meeting were told today

"Because child welfare is such an important area of social welfare it merits national attention," Phyllis Burns of Ottawa, secretary of the council's child welfare division told [illegible] ered for two-day sessions. "We require greater uniformity of legal provision to safeguard child life across the country both new and improved services for children are needed if we expect to have a new generation capable of meeting the tremendous challenge of the future."

His use of the second person always distressed her. It was as if, in his bewildered mind, he still had pride enough left to try to draw his hearer into the puzzle with him—make it general. Page smiled at him, and said comfortingly

"I wouldn't even try to think Just get well—you're so much better now than you were! — and gradually things will all come clearer."

"But it's not getting better, you know."

"Why do you say that?"

"Because it's getting worse! I'm thinking more — queer kinds of things, and my head aches more Really it does, Page!"

"Think all you like, only don't Nobody'll ever bother you!"

"Ah, but what about the diamond? They'll bother me for that They all want that!"

Page was taken unawares and felt for a moment the chill fingers of fright at her own heart. He had not mentioned the diamond for weeks, and in her own growing interest in his physical and mental problem she had almost forgotten it. Now every fibre of her being trembled; she must take advantage of this moment—the right action now might mean release for them all. Another second, if she played her cards right, might solve the most serious problem of Mystery House!

"Yes, but if you gave the diamond back to Mrs. Prendergast, Lynn, then you wouldn't have that to worry about. I'd forgotten that," Page said, carefully careless and cheerful the boat with me for that," the boy said in an undertone Page's face flushed hotly, but she laughed. "I asked God to make it not that!" he added suddenly, in a childish burst of shamed confidence.

The little hurt he had dealt her vanished, and her heart was all tenderness again. The pitifulness of it!

"I came because I like you so much," she said deliberately

It was his turn to color. His big brown hands moved awkwardly "If I could be near you I'd never be afraid of anything," he said simply. "But I guess you couldn't ever do that?"

"Do what?"

"We could get married couldn't we?" he said. "If you would, would, I mean," he added hastily, apologetically

"Maybe some day ..." Page said her throat unexpectedly thick tears in her eyes.

"You're saying that to make me feel better," Lynn observed, shrewdly "You say everything you can to make me feel better, don't you? You're kind, you're terribly kind," he said with his troubled half-smile "That's why I like you so. If ever ..."

His voice died away, there was a long silence.

CHAPTER XII

A little later, Page was walking up the path to the house. A Chinese was bowing and scraping on the terrace, his ivory face a broad smile. "Oneddy come," he announced

"Old lady come? What old lady?" Page asked

For answer Ma Foy gestured with a linen-clad arm, and Page saw standing in the shade of the great banana tree a frail elderly woman in a furred coat, a plumed hat, and long white gloves

"I'm Fanny Watts Roy," the strange woman said, in a weak, faintly autocratic, pleasant voice that matched her appearance in some strange, indefinable way. Page didn't know why Fanny Watts Roy should make her think of far-away ports smelling of sandalwood and cinnamon, of crowded Oriental streets, but the effect was definitely there

"You know who I am I suppose," the caller said "I'm Mrs. Prendergast's sister—her only sister."

"I've heard her speak of you," Page answered her politely. But the girl's thoughts were in a jumble. What to do? Mrs Prendergast left none of her associates in ignorance of her feeling toward her sister. She hated her and despised her. How on earth had this refined, faded little person passed the Japanese guard at the highway gate, and what would happen now? Rand was away. Flora was probably asleep. And upstairs sat enthroned the despotic old woman who would go into a rage at the idea of her sister's nearness.

"I'm Mrs. Prendergast's nurse, Page Hazeltyne," she said pleasantly.

"Suppose you come up to my room? I'm not sure that Mrs Prendergast will see you. She's been nervous lately. That is, she doesn't see anyone—much. But I've got a fire, at least, and you can rest there."

"Extraordinary!" Mrs Roy said in her faintly autocratic, weary, lovely voice "Of course she'll see me! We haven't seen each other for fourteen years."

"Imagine ..." Page murmured sympathetically, her heart beating fast with a terror she could not understand as she opened the door of her room, snapped up the lights. "Just sit down, Mrs Roy," Page said "I'll start up this fire, and you can loosen your coat."

"All this is so ridiculous," the visitor said

Page flung off her own outdoor clothing, the logs in the little stove began to crackle

"You know she is angry at Mrs Hibbs," Page said cautiously

"Yes: my daughter told me that yesterday. The quarrel was nonsense of some sort!"

"She's old, and it was just at the time of Mrs. Mockbee's death," Page offered gently

"I never did like Trudy Mockbee never could stand her!" Mrs Roy said, with a sort of elegant peevishness. "There's no question she was after my sister's money, no question in the world! Alysse tells me her daughter's here."

"Flora. Yes." Page wondered in her uneasy heart if Alysse Hibbs had given her mother any hint that her own position down here was less that of a nurse than that of an amateur detective. Evidently not. Barnes Bishop had not only exacted, but had promised complete secrecy

So she went off to Mrs. Prendergast's room to break the news. Flora was there, had evidently just escorted the old lady to her fireside chair in the sitting-room

"Well, you look comfortable! Are you ready for a visitor?" Page said "Mrs. Prendergast, Mrs. Roy is here."

For a minute there was a complete transfixed silence. Page was almost frightened by the look she saw on the full old wrinkled face. Her employer, when angry, was a dreadful sight.

"What did you say?" Mrs. Prendergast asked measuredly in the pause, and Page heard Flora give a gasp of fright.

"Your sister from India. She's in my room. She was down on the terrace when I came up from the "Who? Fanny Watts?" Mrs Prendergast asked, and again Page heard menace as well as anger in her voice.

"Mrs. Roy," she said. "She wants to see you," Page dared to persist pleadingly.

"How'd she get through the gate?"

"Well, that was funny," Page said, trying for a brightly natural tone "The bus from San Francisco, it seems, took her beyond our gate, and she walked out about a mile below on the cliff path there. That's why they didn't telephone in from the gate."

"Ha! She can go back the way she came, I'll not see her," the old lady said.

"Ah, but she's your sister!" Page said gently, with a smile that apologised for the liberty she took.

Mrs Prendergast was not listening. Her face was dark with blood "You shouldn't have let her into the house."

"Oh, Mrs. Prendergast, it's freezing down there on the terrace!" the girl protested

"Do you believe that story of how she got here, Flora?" the old woman asked, turning a shrewd suspicious well," she added, contemptuously for Flora was white-faced and shaken "I'll send her back where she came from, and that'll be the end of it. There won't be any fight."

"Oh, I devoutly hope there won't be!" Flora said on a sort of wail

"You and Flora go right back and see her now," Mrs Prendergast said "Tell her a man'll come over from the farm, to get her in to Belmont, and that when I want to see her I'll let her know. You can give her a cup of tea or something, if you want to," she added more quietly. "You can say I had a bad night, and don't feel well, and let it go at that!"

She was shaken badly, Page could see that. Her fat old hands were trembling, and her face, livid with anger and fear a few seconds earlier, had turned an unhealthy tallow color. This was her only sister, after all, the girl reflected, perhaps she found it harder than she would admit to refuse this interview, that for both of them might be the last in this life

Flora and Page went through the hall together

Mrs Roy, her coat removed now and her ashy graying hair uncovered, was relaxed in a chair beside faded beautiful eyes that the visitor raised expectantly to Page were heavy with drowsiness.

"You'll take me to my sister?" she said at once, rousing

"I'm so sorry," Page said. "Mrs Prendergast feels wretchedly. She really doesn't want to see anyone."

"How d'you mean anyone? What's the matter with her?" Mrs Roy echoed sharply "I'm her sister."

"I know. But you see—" Page's eye fell on Flora who was quivering wretchedly in the shadows "This is Mrs Mockbee's daughter, Mrs. Roy."

"What's the matter with Mrs. Prendergast?" the imperious faded voice reiterated. "I'm not going to do anything to tire her. I've come all the way from India. I only got here Sunday. I have to get back by March; my husband is a chronic invalid—"

"I know," Flora interrupted with a firmness that amazed Page "but if you'll just wait until she writes you—"

"Why should I?" the newcomer demanded impatiently. "I certainly shall do nothing of the kind! My daughter and her husband both feel the other members of her family if she were not influenced in some way against them

She stopped, stuffed and fixed a defiant glare upon them

"Suppose you see Doctor Hazewood?" Page suggested placatingly, all the trained nurse for the moment. "Miss Mockbee and I can't very well go against Mrs Prendergast's express orders."

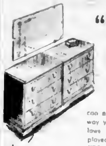

"No, I suppose you can't!" Mrs. Roy conceded. "When will he get here?"

Weather Ship Extends Stay To Aid Planes

Marine News

The Royal Canadian Navy's specially-equipped weather ship, H.M.C.S. St. Stephen, will be on her regular station in Davis Strait when the Royal Air Force flight of eight jet-propelled Vampires takes place in the first week of July, it was announced at Naval Service Headquarters in Ottawa yesterday.

At the request of the Royal Air Force, the regular schedule of Canada's weather ship has been altered. Ordinarily on station for a three-week period, St. Stephen will remain on weather station "Baker" until July 15. Her special assignment will be to supply weather and upper-air information to the first group flight of jet-propelled aircraft across the Atlantic. The aircraft will travel via Iceland, Greenland and Labrador.

When St. Stephen returns to Halifax, she will spend approximately six weeks refitting and granting her crew some well-deserved leave. This refit will mark the first long respite since beginning her operations in the gale-swept Davis Strait late in 1947. Apart from her brief spells between voyages, her only other break from the inhospitable weather came when as the result of weather damage she was forced to return to her base for hurried repairs.

Bergen Sails

Edgar Bergen is among passengers sailing in the Swedish American motorliner Stockholm which left New York last Saturday for Sweden. He is going to film a travelogue in Sweden which will be the first of a series. Narrator for the film will be world-famous Charlie McCarthy.

Mrs. Bergen is also making the trip, and the couple will visit Denmark, England and France before returning to the United States in the Gripsholm at the end of July.

Tug Repaired

Extensive reconditioning and repairs have been completed in the Canadian National's tug No. 1 and the vessel departed from Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd., yesterday afternoon.

Order—Not Request—Sent Out To Reserves for Flood Duties

Reserve soldiers must report to their units immediately for duty with the "flood army."

The call was repeated last night by reserve officers. It was an order, not a request.

"We're still short of men—the more we can get, the better," Lt.-Col. R. D. Travis, officer commanding Vancouver Island's composite unit in the Fraser Valley [illegible] to Capt. J. S. Edmondson, administration and training officer, Canadian Scottish.

Capt. Edmondson emphasized that men of the reserve army must report immediately to Bay Street Armoury. Employers may apply for exemptions on behalf of their employees, but they will be granted only in special cases, Capt. Edmondson said.

NEW RECRUITS WANTED

New recruits are still sought for flood duty. Island reserve units are accepting men between 18 and 45.

Additional flood-fighters will be sent out in groups of 20 each day to join the composite contingent of 340 Island men already battling the Fraser. Forty men left yesterday under Major Peter Ramsay.

The Island group drawn from Canadian Scottish, Heavy Anti-Aircraft, 13th Field Ambulance, R.C.E.M.E. and West Coast Signals, has moved into the Pitt Meadows flood area.

The area forms a soggy triangle of the swollen Fraser, Pitt and Alouette rivers protected by saturated dikes, Corporal Albert Collins reported from the flood front.

NO PERSONAL DANGER

Should the dikes give way the area will be swept by about 15 feet of water, he said.

After a hasty meal in Pitt Meadows Municipal Hall, Monday night, the group moved to the dike area along damp gravel roads, passing swamped farmhouses. The men spent the night getting under canvas in a mosquito-ridden field 100 yards from overflow dikes.

Personal danger is negligible, since direct roads lead to ground half a mile distant rising 70 feet. The job is to strengthen weak dikes on all three fronts, keeping men in readiness for a break-through, and awaiting the 14.4-foot semi-annual high tide Friday morning.

Mail to the Vancouver Island group should be addressed to Army Headquarters, Exercise Overflow, Section 4, Vancouver.

Clubs' Founder Addresses Toastmasters

"Since we have the privilege of free speech, we have to be sure our speech is worth the freedom."

Ralph Smedley, founder and educational director of Toastmasters' International, told members of three Victoria Toastmasters' clubs at the Hotel Strathcona last night that "English is the language of free men."

Mr. Smedley, ex-newspaperman and Y.M.C.A. secretary, told members of the character-building value of the world-wide speaking organization he organized 24 years ago. Toastmasters' speech-training develops determination and self-control through overcoming fears, he said.

Maj. W. S. Oliver, president of Victoria No. 38, first club established in the British Empire, presented an ebony gavel which Mr. Smedley will pass to a former Victorian, Harry Olden, for the Toastmasters' Club which Mr. Olden has founded in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Mr. Smedley presented the De Salle Trophy for the year's best speech to J. H. Doughty, vice-president of No. 38. Past district governors' pins went to Barrie Goult, first district governor for British Columbia, and Ed Whyte, who is retiring from the governor's post next month. His successor will be Bruce Carmichael, Vancouver.

Benjamin Franklyn, president of Union Toastmasters' Club No. 331, and Neil Main, president of Thunderbird No. 396, reported the progress of their groups.

Musical Instruments Sought for Schools

HAS anybody got a Stradivarius in the attic?

George Bower, musical director of Oak Bay schools, last night asked the aid of Willows Parent-Teacher Association in collecting violins for the planned Oak Bay Schools' Symphony Orchestra.

The association, meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Sisson, 1746 Lulie Street, promised to back the plan. An appeal will go out to Oak Bay citizens [illegible] care and upkeep will be guaranteed.

The symphony orchestra will include pupils of Willows and Monterey Elementary Schools and Oak Bay High School.

Willows P.-T.A. decided to contribute to flood relief and Oak Bay playgrounds.

Flood-Delayed Mail Here From East

All flood-delayed first-class mail from the East has reached Victoria and been distributed, John S. Sinclair, postmaster, announced last night.

Letter mail as well as air mail was flown to Vancouver. From there letters bound for Victoria were forwarded by boat and plane.

Only first-class mail is being accepted in Victoria for shipment East. From Vancouver this mail is shuttled East by air and rail.

Mr. Sinclair felt, however, that there was still a large amount of second, third, and parcel post mail on the other side of the flooded area.

A shipment of 300 bags of this type of mail reached Victoria yesterday.

According to latest information to reach the post office here, present letter mail from the East is being carried by rail as far as Hope, B.C. From there it is taken by truck to Vancouver.

Air mail service from the East is continuing without undue delay, Mr. Sinclair said.

Although some post office staff employees are in flooded areas with the militia, Mr. Sinclair said his office is being kept up to date by radiogram from Vancouver.

If very large shipments are bound for Victoria, they will be met by a staff large enough to handle them.

B.C. Approves Oak Bay Plan

An Oak Bay by-law for expenditure of $18,600 from a $136,832 reserve fund was approved by Provincial order in council yesterday.

The by-law provides $4,700 for park improvements at Thompson Avenue and Estevan Avenue and a new road through part of Uplands Park, $5,500 for storm drains adjoining the exhibition grounds, including Newton, Dunlevy, Heron, McNeill, Lincoln and Nottingham Roads, $6,960 for waterworks extensions in Uplands Park and Lorne Terrace, and $500 for a new sidewalk along Cadboro Bay Road.

Thefts Reported To City Police

Maurice Green, manager of Capital Iron Works, Store Street, reported to police the theft of two chain blocks and an anvil.

Total value, he said, was about $50.

Bjorn Bjornson reported the theft of his watch from a hotel room.

DONATE BISCUITS

Many people in flooded areas will be munching biscuits these days following an announcement last night that 20,000 Dad's cookies had been donated. Half will go to the Navy and the remainder to the Red Cross.

Butter Supply Easing; Meat Next Problem

Vancouver Island's butter shortage is easing but a meat shortage may be the next problem facing housewives unless flood-broken rail-links with the Prairies are restored soon.

Two Victoria packing-house managers said yesterday that meat supplies [illegible] point. "We were caught short by the floods," said one manager. "There's not much livestock on the coast now."

Wholesale and retail storage stocks may be sufficient for a week or ten days, but unless more grain-fed beef rolls west from the Prairies soon, joints and steaks will become much scarcer.

British Columbia grass-fed beef will not be ready for about a month.

C.N.R. and C.P.R. officials would make no predictions yesterday when rail service will resume. C.P.R. trains are now reaching Haig and C.N.R. trains are reaching Hope.

Air shipments may beat the butter shortage within a week, spokesmen for two of five Victoria butter distributors said. One added that stocks are still less than half normal Victoria requirements. Three other companies are receiving no butter.

"We're rationing butter to our customers," a wholesaler said. Retailers were either rationing their supplies or keeping it for "regular customers." Other retailers had none to sell.

Want Bus Back on Old Route

Urging adoption of a 15-minute service for the Colville bus and a return to its former route, Mrs. M. Millan, 1042 Colville Road and Mrs. O. H. Augustine, 1123 Lockley Road, appeared before Esquimalt Municipal Council last night to protest what they called "inadequate service" now being offered.

Council had also before it, a petition bearing names of 223 residents served by the bus line, asking for a return to the old route which took the bus down from Colville Road to [illegible] Road on its return loop to the city. Present route of the bus brings it back to Esquimalt Road at Head Street instead of at Admirals Road.

Mrs. Millan declared the present route inconvenienced both housewives, who wished to shop in Esquimalt, and shipyard workers who had to leave the bus at Naden and find other means of getting to the dockyard.

Said Reeve A. I. Thomas, "We'll take it up with the transportation department of the B.C. Electric Company tomorrow."

Councillor J. A. Ellis suggested the Colville bus on its return to the city might take the route of the Munro bus and the Munro bus return on the Colville route.

"We want a 15-minute service and extra buses in rush hours," persisted Mrs. Millan. "That's fair enough."

Council passed a motion calling on the B.C. Electric to effect a return to the old Colville bus route over Councillor Ellis' objection that such a move would be "absolutely useless."

After hearing the deputation, council met for three-quarters of an hour in a private session with W. C. Mainwaring, vice-president of the B.C. Electric, and Harold Husband, managing director of the Vancouver Island Coach Lines. No details of the meeting were given the press, but when council later passed without discussion an item dealing with increased transportation fares it was presumed the fare structure had been considered.

Council moved for purchase of a power mower at a cost of $198. Councillor Fred Higgins noting the [illegible] boulevards, said such a machine would prove very useful.

Because no plans exist showing drainage systems running through Wartime Housing property from Fraser to McAuley and from Wollaston to Dunsmuir, Mr. Pelcher was instructed to "make surveys and procure easements for the system."

Bullen Park will be ready for soccer in the Fall, Councillor Alex Spiers told council during presentation of the parks committee report.

Council decided to ask the B.C. Electric Company to route the Munro bus along Wollaston instead of along Head Street to overcome the difficulty of climbing Head [illegible]

Permission was given the Glad Tidings Tabernacle to erect a Sunday School room on the property now occupied by the church.

More HOMES Were BUILT in Canada (Per Capita) Last Year Than in Any Other Nation . . .

Canada leads the world (per capita) in new home construction. This is a great tribute to Canadian individuals and to free enterprise. Canada today provides its citizens with at least four rooms to an average family. Yet, amidst this fine building record there are those who are fostering a system that has failed to provide more than ONE ROOM PER FAMILY. And, if the people complain of dirty, unhealthful, cramped quarters, they are liable to sentence in a concentration camp for speaking against the State. (The State owns all housing accommodation.)

Canada is blessed with men and women who believe in the right to make their lives what they can. This spirit is the foundation of our country.

Maintaining this freedom must be the first duty of every citizen . . . stamp out the infectious doctrines of the afflicted minds that advocate the overthrow of our Canadian way of life.

Toronto Stocks

TORONTO, June 8 (CP).—All groups continued easier in light trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange. Junior golds weakened while seniors held firm and industrials and base metals showed an easier tone. Western oils were down as selected issues were heavy losers. Industrial groupings began to strengthen late in the session with gains about equaling losses. Papers and utilities were mixed, and steels easier.

Montreal Stocks

MONTREAL, June 8 (CP).—Selected industrials continued to move into higher ground during moderately active trading on the Montreal Stock Exchange and Curb Market. Mines were improved in dull dealings. Papers were improved. Sullivan increased 3 cents in mines; Lob's Lake, 1 cent; Vinray Mawrtic, ⅛, and Santiago, Cartier-Malartic and Candego, ½ cent apiece. Dickenson, Dulama, Eldona, Normetal and Joliet-Quebec were easier.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, June 8 (AP) — Hedge selling in wheat and profit cashing in corn and oats reduced prices from their best levels at the Board of Trade session. The harvest in Northern Texas is advancing so rapidly that private reports say elevators are full and wheat is being piled on the ground.

Winnipeg Grain

WINNIPEG, June 8 (CP).—Oats and barley prices developed an easier tone in closing trade on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, on selling influenced by beneficial rains in Manitoba and sections of Saskatchewan. There was an increase in hedging pressure, and the grains found little support from shippers.

One-Hitter Marks Win By Leaders

A brilliant one-hit pitching performance by Ruth Oster gave Wally Yeamans Eaglettes a 10-0 victory over Sidney in a Senior "A" women's softball engagement last night. The triumph enabled winners to hold their one-game lead over the runner-up Adverts, who edged out Army and Navy Tael, 12-11, in the other game.

Oster faced only 24 batters in the seven-inning contest. Losers put runners on first through a walk, an error and the lone hit by Thomas, but each failed to advance past the initial sack. Seven of losers' batters went down via the strikeout route.

Adverts rallied with five runs in each of the sixth and final innings to snatch their one-run triumph. P. Hancock was the winning hurler and F. Andrejkew the loser.

Page Cleaners walloped Y.M.C.A., 32-3, to earn their second victory in the junior boys' league. A juvenile contest saw C.C.Y.M. nose out Junior Optimists, 17-16.

Al Zimmerman State Champ

EVERETT, Wash., June 8 (CP).—Veteran Al Zimmerman of Portland, Ore.—as hot as the scorching sun overhead—easily won the Washington State Open golf championship Sunday with a 15-under-par 273 to finish 11 strokes ahead of the field. His first place was good for $500.

Tied for second were two amateurs, Harry Olvan of Seattle and Jack Westland of Everett, both with 284.

Stan Leonard of Vancouver was bracketed in a three-way tie for seventh with the defending titlist, Chuck Congdon of Tacoma, Wash., and Fred Bolton of Pendleton, Ore. Each won $188.66 for their 287 scores.

Main Advances In Net Tourney

SEATTLE, June 8 (AP).—Lorne Main, Vancouver, B.C., junior star turned in the outstanding double-killing performance of the Seattle City Tennis Championship Tourney today.

He blasted two Seattle players from the tourney with the loss of only three games. Main is seeded seventh.

His victims were Glenn Linden by 6-0, 6-3 and Ford Cooley, 6-0, 6-0.

The tourney favorite, top-seeded Jim Brink of Seattle, coasted to an easy 6-0, 6-2 victory over Mike Crawford.

The tournament opened Monday.

O.C. Soccer Bans Television; Attendances Up

LONDON, June 8 (AP).—The Football League voted unanimously today to ban television of all league soccer matches except the Football Association cup final and international games.

W. C. Cuff, president of the league, put the television question to a vote after several members suggested that television might reduce gate receipts.

In opening the league's annual meeting, Cuff said the past season was the most successful in league history with attendances totaling approximately 40,000,000, nearly 5,000,000 more than the best previous season.

After years of study, no one has been able to determine the habits of Pacific Coast salmon. It is still a major mystery where they go. And that's something I would certainly like to know.

Having read somewhere that the bluebacks at Qualicum Beach were making the waters at the famed Up-Island resort dangerous for swimmers, I persuaded a friend, who prefers to remain anonymous for reasons which will become obvious, that we couldn't miss. It must have been a rosy picture, for he is a fellow who loves his sleep and he didn't get much of it over the week-end. week-end.

Changing into our angling outfits and gathering up our gear after the grind was over at 1.30 Sunday morning, we struck out for Qualicum. Nobody slept on the 100-mile trip. There was much discussion on the limit per boat, whether or not it would be according to Hoyle to come in after getting the limit and then go out again. We even marked down which of our friends were going to benefit from our angling skill.

Arriving at 6 a.m., the first doubts began to assail us. There was no one up. We figured—rightly, as it turned out—that if there were fish there would be someone out fishing. Up-Islanders must sleep late, because there was no sign of life except for two other gullible Izaak Waltons.

After a two-hour wait, we finally found out where Art Chapman lived. He had been commandeered to see to it that we had a boat. Well, Art had done his duty. Still hopeful, we had our lines in before 9.

First of all, there was some trouble with the boat. It stalled when we decided the reason for our lack of success was that we were going too fast. After that, there was a lot of desperate scrambling. Off came the abalones and small Tom Macks. Out came plugs, Wonder and Diamond spoons. We took weight off, we put it on, we scraped the bottom, tangled our lines and tried it on the surface. And we got hungry, thirsty and sun-burned.

Four hours later, with only an unfortunate starfish to show for our efforts we headed quietly to the boathouse. It was with some envy that we heard two other fishermen (?) stoutly claim they had seen a four-pounder jump. It was with no satisfaction that we listened to the boatman earnestly explain that the bluebacks had been there but, he had heard they had moved up to Campbell River. No, we ARE NOT going to go to Campbell River this week-end.

Random Harvest

Victoria baseball fans are quick to recognize Umpire John Nenesich and let loose with the boos long before he is announced. In games here to date this season, Nenesich has done a good job . . . Hard-luck Len Kasparovitch, whose record stands at six won, five lost, should have a 9-2 rating if he had had any kind of luck . . . Victoria sports fans did not give Olympic Preview Day the kind of support the event merited. There still is a lack of interest, even in an Olympic year, in track and field events. The meet provided some great running. Most impressive performers were Vancouver's Jack Hutchins and Phil Matson, the Oak Bay High School middle-distance comer. Hutchins was much too good for Cliff Salmond, who is best at two miles, over the short 1,500 metres distance and looked like a good bet for the Canadian Olympic Team. Matson, a picture runner, is a star of the future. No one can have anything but admiration for Shirley Gordon, provincial high jump champion. Handicapped by a crippled leg, the Vancouver miss wanted to participate in sports and took up high jumping. Her success is due solely to a lot of determination . . . One of the real veterans in Victoria sport is Stan Tenning, now in his 34th season of senior softball and doing well on the mound for the leading Douglas Tire nine.

Combines Capture Fund Match

A combined eleven made up of Esquimalt and Victoria West players defeated Canadian Legion, 7-5, in a match at Macdonald Park last night in aid of the B.C. Emergency Flood Relief Fund. A small crowd witnessed the event.

Teams put up a fair brand of soccer although hampered by the heat. Feature of the game was Charlie Musgrave's four-goal effort for losers.

Although Legion was without several regulars, they managed to take a 2-1 lead over the Combines in the first half.

Teams battled evenly in the second half and the issue was in doubt until near the end of the tilt. Scorers for winners were Gent 2, Young 2, Hayward 1 and Shubrook 2. Joe Robbins, member of St. Andrews Pacific Coast Soccer League team, turned out for Legion and scored their other marker.

Spectators contributed $25 to the fund.

The Legion eleven will meet North Shore at the same park on Saturday in a Province Cup semi-final.

Esquimalt High Nears Ball Title

The league-leading Esquimalt High School nine scored seven runs in a big sixth inning to defeat Victoria High School Golds, 10-8, in a Senior Inter-High Baseball League game yesterday.

Winners can clinch the league title by a victory over Vic High Blacks tomorrow.

Winning pitcher was Bob Fleming, who struck out 10 batters and gave up five hits. Parker and Brookbank hurled for Golds, giving up eight hits.

Jack Wright starred with the willow for Esquimalt smashing out a three-run homer and a two-run triple, both in the hectic sixth.

Vic West Bowlers Score Double Win

Victoria West bowlers were double winners at the Burnside Lawn Bowling Club recently. Two Victoria West rinks defeated Canadian Pacific rinks, 49-25, in the Cameron-Nical Cup competition and another two rinks were successful in edging Canadian Pacific squads in the Whitney Cup contests, 42-39.

The Victoria Club bowlers downed Lake Hill, 42-35, in the Cameron-Nicol play but lost to the same club in the Whitney competition, 48-22.

Next games will be played at the Victoria West Club on Friday starting at 7:15 p.m.

Bowling Club to Send $55.25 to Flood Fund

A sum of $55.25 was collected for flood relief at the triple competition held by the Victoria West Lawn Bowling Club on Monday. Officials of the club have expressed pride in the fact their club was the first here to arrange a competition in aid of the flood victims.

A fair number of bowlers enjoyed the keen competition.

Scale Shows Champ in Shape

In training camp photo, Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis points to his weight of 215 pounds to refute rumors that scheduled fight with Joe Walcott would have to be canceled because Louis was overweight. Scale doesn't lie, so title rematch will come off as scheduled on June 23.

Tillicums Upset J.B.A.A. For First Boxla Victory

HOW THEY STAND

	W.	L.	Pct.
Nanaimo	2	0	1.000
Jokers	3	1	.750
Faul Bay	2	3	.400
J.B.A.A.	2	4	.333
T.A.C.	1	2	.250

Last night's score: T.A.C., 10; J.B.A.A., 8. Next game tomorrow: T.A.C. vs. Jokers, Stevenson Park, 6:30 p.m.

The youthful Tillicums scored their first victory in the senior lacrosse loop at Stevenson Park box last night when they nosed out James Bay, 10-8, despite a five-goal effort by husky Johnny Bamford, Bay's winger.

Practically all the action in the tilt came in the rousing fourth period when the weather became a bit cooler. It was in this period that Bamford, picking the far corner of the net in each case, slapped in four goals in a single-handed attempt to snatch victory.

With the score 7-3 in favor of Arne Ferguson's boys as the period opened, Bamford cut the margin by one with a smart shot but Tillicums erased that on a pretty play by Ritchie and Bob Long. Bamford came up with two more before Bourke tallied for winners and then Bamford drove through alone for his fourth marker of the period to shave the margin to 8-7.

Norm Coates closed the gap to a single goal three minutes from time but harrassed Buzz Long in the Tillicum nets staved off further efforts of losers to pull the game out of the fire. A marker by Cory a split second from game time gave the T.A.C.'s their two-goal victory.

SPEED COUNTS

Tillicums' speed showed to advantage as they worked their way in close to force Bays' Netminder Bob Aitken to stop 22 shots compared to 17 for Buzz Long, T.A.C. goal-tender.

Although his brother Johnny was the star of the tilt, 21-year-old Gordy Bamford, centreman on the opposing Tillicum team was dangerous everytime he got the ball. Harry Downs also played a useful game for winners, netting two and assisting on three more goals.

Only penalties of the game were given to Winters and Horne, both of losers. Mason Sheldrake of Tillicums was taken to hospital with a possible dislocated jaw.

J.B.A.A.—Aitken, Green, Reid, Pickford, Costello, Bamford 5, Cummings, Coates 3, Horne, O'Connell, Bradley and Winters. Total 8.

T.A.C.—Long, Henderson, Leonards, Cory 2, Lawrence, Bob Long 2, Downs 2, Booth G. Bamford, Bourke 2, Druce 1, Oakley Ritchie and Sheldrake 1. Total 10.

Shanks (L.H.); 6, H. Harrison (V.W.) vs. Passmore (Burn); 7, J. Richardson (L.H.) vs. C. Fea (V.W.); 8, T. York (Vic) vs. A. McCallum (L.H.); 9, H. E. Philbrook (V.W.) vs. S. Barr (C.P.); 10, S. Kinsey (Burn) vs. A. Findlay (V.W.); 11, W. Peddis (L.H.) vs. Gahan (Vic). Byes: A. Stewart (Burn), Paterson (L.H.), A. Marconini (Vic), W. Hamilton (C.P.), J. Keating (V.W.).

Legend: L.H.—Lake Hill; V.W.—Victoria West; Burn—Burnside; Vic—Victoria; C.P.—Canadian Pacific.

Numbers 1 to 7, also number 11 play Monday. Winners and balance of players play Monday, June 21.

Top Vancouver Women Golfers Expected to Enter P.N.G.A.

Judging by entries already received, one of the strongest contingents of Vancouver women golfers ever to appear on local courses is expected to compete in this month's P.N.G.A. tournament from June 21 to 26.

The women will play at the Uplands club, which is assisting the Victoria club in staging the tourney.

Heading the Vancouver delegation will be Mrs. Hugh O'Callaghan, current Vancouver city champion, who is defending her laurels this week. In addition to the city honors, Mrs. O'Callaghan is women's champion at Quilchena, a former runner-up for the British Columbia title, a member of the British Columbia women's interprovincial golf team and qualifier in last year's Canadian Women's Open. She plays to a two handicap.

Another two handicap player expected to tee off is Miss Babs Davies, Marine Club women's champion and winner of last year's mixed two-ball foursome with Jack Ellis. She is also a member of the interprovincial team and qualified in the 1947 Canadian Open.

Mrs. R. H. Cleat, Point Grey champion and runner-up to Mrs. Jack Todd in the Jasper tournament, is another highly rated Vancouver player expected. Mrs. Cleat was winner of the women's city two-ball match last year, partnered with Mrs. D. Atkins.

Among the youngest competitors in the women's field will be Miss Clare Martin, 20-year-old shotmaker from Point Grey. Playing her second year in senior golf, Clare was rated third among Lower Mainland contenders in 1947 for the interprovincial team. She also qualified in last year's Canadian Open.

Connie Mack Says A's Not Tired; Miss Outfielders

PHILADELPHIA, June 8 (AP).—Connie Mack today took a speculative look at his Philadelphia Athletics, winners of only two games in their last nine, and offered this comment: "These conditions are not permanent."

The Mackmen came back to Philadelphia for a long home stand, starting against New York Yankees May 28. The A's won three out of four from the Yanks and then went into a slump climaxed by three straight defeats in the recent Cleveland series.

It was suggested that the A's might be tired.

"No, they're not tired," said 84-year-old Connie. "It's simply that we miss Valo and McCosky, and our pitching staff at the moment is all shot."

Rightfielder Elmer Valo sustained a rib fracture in a fence-crashing catch two weeks ago and at the same time Leftfielder Barney McCosky pulled up with a strained leg muscle.

New Course Mark Set by Ezinicki

WINNIPEG, June 8 (CP).—Rugged Bill Ezinicki, member of the National Hockey League's Toronto Maple Leafs and a recent addition to professional golfing ranks, shattered a record over the week-end at the Charleswood course with a five-under-par 67 score.

In breaking the late Dave Arnott's previous record 70, Wild Bill was out in 33 and back in 34 on the par 72 layout.

Fletchers Win Pair

Fletchers Men's Wear juvenile baseball club swept both ends of a twin bill at Beacon Hill Park on Sunday. In the opener, they defeated Oreneks, 5-1, behind the three-hit hurling of Lionel Smith. Smith struck out ten. Bryan Palin was the winning pitcher in the second game, shading Ace Woodworkers, 3-2.

Spaulding Receives Victory Kiss

VICTORY kiss from Mrs. Douglas Hawkes, wife of co-donor of Hawkes-Foster Trophy, was reward of Jack Spaulding after he made clean sweep of events at Langford Speedway auto race meet Saturday. Kiss was in addition to trophy which Mrs. Hawkes presented. Charlie Flitton, president of B.C.-A.S.A., is seen third from left, while Johnny Hausmann, Seattle, owner of car, is on extreme right. Race officials announced last night that Bung Eng, popular Chinese driver, will have his car ready for this Saturday's meet.

Softball Leagues Slate Fund Games

Lower Island softball teams will aid the flood relief fund with three games on Sunday, it was announced last night.

Two of the games will be played at Langford and feature teams from the Victoria and District and Colwood and District Softball Associations. The third will be played at Sooke.

Langford and J.H. & E. senior "B" women's nines meet in the Langford opener at 5.30 p.m. Langford's men's senior "B" club will tangle with Merchants, from the Colwood Association, in the final at 7 p.m.

At Sooke, the Jordan River and Sooke men's senior "B" clubs will engage in a regular Colwood and District league fixture. Gross proceeds will go to the fund.

Last night, J.H. & E. pounded out a 25-15 triumph over Langford at Langford in a women's senior "B" league fixture.

Unable to find a base hit at the right time, despite their 11 safeties, and playing mediocre baseball, Victoria Athletics dropped the second game of the series to Wenatchee Chiefs, 7-5, before 1,300 fans at Royal Athletic Park last night. The loss left the A's five games below the .500 mark—their lowest rating of the season—and only the fact that Yakima lost kept them from sliding into the W.I.L. cellar.

Although the score was close and the Norbertmen in the battle most of the way, the game produced little interesting baseball. Keeping time with the slow tempo of the game was Umpire Ornest, who showed little hustle behind the plate and gave the pitchers far the worst of it.

Scoring was spread throughout the nine innings. The A's took a 2-0 lead in the first, made it 2-2 in the third and then tied it up at 4-4 in the fourth after the Chiefs had gone ahead. The home club lost its best chance in the eighth when they loaded the bags with two out. Balassi walked to force in a run to make it 7-5 but Buccola fouled out to McNulty.

BREAKS COUNT

The game was decided on breaks, and most of them went the other way. In the Wenatchee fifth with the A's ahead, 2-2, McCollum and McWilliams opened with singles to leave runners on second and first. Anticipating a bunt, Palmer left his position and McNulty grounded a double, which should have been a double play, through the vacated area and two runs scored. What proved to be the winning runs were scored in the eighth when the rally was started as Gilmore just failed to make a shoe-string catch. Later in the inning, Kubiak's throw hit Gaviglio on the head with an easy out at third base apparent.

Gilmore's two-base error on Estes' single in the seventh gave the winners another run. The other two came on home runs by Gaviglio and McWilliams.

KUBIAK SNAPS SLUMP

Losers pecked away at McCollom who marked up his seventh win, but were stopped when another hit would have turned the tide. Three hits in the sixth meant only a single run and three hits and a walk in the eighth also sent but one runner across. Lou Kubiak, with four hits in as many trips, snapped out of a slump to lead the way at the plate. Palmer clouted a long home run in the third and was robbed of another extra-base clout when Bill Wilson gathered in his smash to the left-field corner.

Frank Logue is the Victoria mound choice for the series finale tonight. He will be opposed by Chuck Cronin, Wenatchee manager.

Senators Stop Tigers Again: Caps Trounced

TACOMA, June 8 (AP).—Given a brilliant relief pitching performance by the rangy Bob Stevenson, Salem Senators made it two in a row over the Western International League-leading Tacoma Tigers here tonight, 7-3. It was the first time all season that the Tigers had dropped two straight on the home lot.

Jim Olson, big right-hander bidding for his eighth straight victory of the season, retired in the second inning after being nicked for four hits and two Tiger runs. Stevenson set the Tacoma tossers down with a lone infield single the rest of the way.

The Senators actually won the game by chasing across four unearned runs in the second inning, with Olson's three-run double accounting for most of the damage.

Brooks Continue Climb; Indians Gain, A's Slide

Two big innings and a stalwart relief pitching job by Rookie Willard Ramsdell enabled Brooklyn to continue their uphill climb in the National League as they shaded Cincinnati Reds 6-5 yesterday.

The Dodgers got all their runs in the first two innings, but the Reds came back with five runs in the third frame. Then Ramsdell took over, yielding only two singles the rest of the way.

Young Vern Bickford pitched a four-hitter for Boston Braves, but he could have taken it a lot easier as his club piled up an 11-1 margin over Chicago Cubs.

Veteran Ted Wilks turned in another good relief performance as St. Louis Cardinals survived a bad start to edge Philadelphia Phillies 7-6.

Cleveland Indians added to their American League lead when Lou Boudreau socked a two-run homer close to the right field foul line in the fourth inning to give them a 2-0 score over Boston Red Sox. Rookies Lefty Parnell of Boston and Gene Bearden of Cleveland matched five-hitters.

Meanwhile Philadelphia Athletics dropped into a second-place tie with New York Yankees as Hal Newhouser bested Philadelphia's Lou Brissie to give Detroit Tigers a 2-1 victory. The Yanks shaded Chicago White Sox 3-2 as Bobby Brown singled home the winning run in the 13th inning.

Washington Senators got 13 hits including a homer by Ed Stewart off two St. Louis hurlers to shade the Browns 6-5. Paul Lehner had a triple, double and single for the losers.

The Sportlight

By GRANTLAND RICE

Next week-end over the barranca-bound course of Riviera, some golfer may miss a short putt and lose the United States Open. Another golfer may hole a 20-footer and win it.

On the first tee at Riviera you stand on an eminence—where the big clubhouse is placed—and look down into a deep valley below. The first hole is close to 500 yards. With the elevated tee, the longer hitters can hit the green in two, and then start their gradual climb back to the clubhouse again.

Riviera is a course that demands high-class play with wood, iron and putter. We played our first round there many years ago with Frank Craven, Babe Hardy, Guy Kibbee and Dick Hanlay, then head football coach of Northwestern. Also an unknown by the name of John Montague, the mysterious.

DISLIKED PUBLICITY

In that round, Montague was out in 33, and standing on the 18th tee he needed a 4 for a 65. It was as fine a round of golf as I've ever seen. He squared away from the course and hit his drive into the woods. "Pick it up," he said to his caddie. It seems, at that time, there were various reasons, later explained, why he wanted no publicity.

At that time Montague could match any of today's stars. "I played with him around that time," Bobby Cruickshank told me later, "for a fair bet. He opened with seven consecutive three's, and I paid him off in advance."

Riviera is a rugged type of course Tommy Armour has always rated it one of the finest tests he has ever tackled, since a mistake could leave you, at times, in appalling trouble—including a deep barranca full of rocks and slate.

In the Los Angeles Open, the rough was cut away and the pins were placed on scoring places. What a difference that can make. Ben Hogan, a great golfer, turned in 275 over Riviera in the Los Angeles Open. I think 283 will win next week.

THE TOUGHEST TEST

There is something about an open golf championship that brings on tension and adds to scoring heights. "I can tell you the difference it makes," Tommy Armour told me some time ago. "In 1828, Bobby Jones and Johnny Farrell tied over the Olympia Fields course at 294. In the play-off, Farrell won by sinking a 10-foot putt. It might also be remembered that Farrell played the last four holes in four birdies twice in a row during the tournament.

"The point is that Farrell and Jones needed 294 for the United States Open. A short time later, the Western Open was played over the same course but the pressure of the open was off so Macdonald Smith won with 282, twelve strokes under the open."

MYOPIA TOUGHEST

The toughest course the open has ever known is Myopia, just outside of Boston. In 1898 Fred Herd won here with 328, an average round of 82.

Then in 1901 Willie Anderson won at Myopia after a tie with Alex Smith at 331. The four championships held at Myopia averaged 324. The greens were so slanting and slippery that Walter J. Travis once six-putted.

It is still charged that one pro missed a three-foot putt and lost his ball on the first hole. He turned away as the ball missed the cup—and when he looked again it was gone.

The fast-playing Alex Smith was the first to break 300—at Onwentsia in 1906. Walter Hagen had 290 in his first open victory at Midlothian in 1914. Chick Evans was the first to break 290 with his 286 at Minikahda, in 1916.

281 IS LOWEST

No golfer has ever reached or broken 280 in our major tournament. Ralph Guldahl set the mark at 281 at Oakland Hills, Detroit, in 1937, and this is still the target they are all shooting at. Bobby Jones' best mark was 287 at Interlachen, Hagen's was 290, and Sarazen's best was 286 at Fresh Meadow.

We hear how they laugh at par at various big-money tournaments. They don't laugh at par in an open. Pars are accepted with deep thanks.

Rains Help Fire Crews

TORONTO, June 8 (CP).—Recent rain has helped some fire crews in their long, weary fight against flames raging in Northern Ontario forests. But showers still have not fallen where they are needed most—on the mammoth Mississagi and Chapleau fires.

Both blazes have spread slightly during the last few days and each now is estimated at 80,000 acres. Although only a few miles apart for almost a week, they have not joined, Provincial forestry officials said.

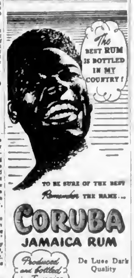

ARNHEM, The Netherlands, June 8 (AP).—Five workers were killed here today when a 3,000-pound bomb exploded in a concrete building that was one of the West European headquarters of the German Air Force during the war.

"CAN'T TAKE IT" ANY MORE like you used to?

If extra work or effort now becomes a strain—if you tire easily and no longer have the same old pep and energy—you'll appreciate the revitalizing effect of Phyllosan. Phyllosan, a modern scientific formula developed through the research of an eminent professor of medicine, tends to tone up the whole system and promote a sensation of general well-being. Soon you begin to feel keener, younger, more alive.

Phyllosan, it has been said, is "more than a tonic, it is a creative force in the system" . . . which "stimulates all physical and vital forces." Tablets should be taken regularly every day, particularly by those over 40, who usually derive the most benefit. Buy at your druggists today—results may astonish you!

PHYLLOSAN (PRONOUNCED FIL-O-SAN) helps keep you fit after forty 85c ($1.50 for double quantity) The word Phyllosan is a registered trade-mark

Graziano Is Strong Favorite To Take Tonight's Title Bout

NEWARK, N.J., June 8 (AP).—Youth and a brain-scrambling right hand make Champion Rocky Graziano a strong favorite over rugged body-punching Tony Zale tomorrow night in the third chapter of their series at Ruppert Stadium.

Most folks think their middleweight boxing title brawl can't possibly go the scheduled 15 rounds. [illegible] from New York's East Side dropped off a point at the end of final drills. They fell from 8 to 12 to 5 to 11 and even 1 to 2 in some circles. It is not a big betting fight.

Arrival of Zale supporters from Chicago and his home town of Gary, Ind., and a burst of sunshine, brought an upswing in ticket sales.

The tournament of Champions, Inc., a new promotional group formed to compete with Mike Jacobs, predicted a $350,000 house and an attendance of some 21,000. With Graziano reported guaranteed $120,000 or 40 per cent and Zale assured of $60,000 or 20 per cent, the outlook for a profit was not bright. Another $30,000 has been pledged to charity.

RING OUTCAST

Graziano is a ring outcast in his own state where his licence was revoked for refusing to report an alleged bribe offer long before he won the title. Many other states put up the bars against him because of his spotty army record.

The Rock is eager to show the New York fans that he deserves to be champ. He also would like to convince Chairman Eddie Eagan of the New York State Athletic Commission that he should be reinstated.

The Rock figures things like this. He has been through a District Attorney's investigation. He has been suspended and freely criticized in all quarters. Now he hopes to make up for all this with his fists. Zale just happens to be in the way.

Zale, too, has every incentive. At 34, eight years older than Graziano, this probably will be his last chance to regain the crown he wore from 1940 until last July. If he doesn't win, he may retire.

For the records, Graziano has refused to name a knockout round. Zale has said he'll end it in three.

Sport Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, June 8 (AP).—A popular pastime among horsemen this week is trying to pick a three-year-old that can beat Citation in the Belmont Saturday . . . If you can do it, you probably can make a peck of money, but it's safer to bet on Citation at 1 to 10 . . . The Calumet Stable didn't win an important race last week and Owner Warren Wright probably needs that $60,000 or so . . . The Belmont publicity department lists eight winners of the celebrated stake which won a total of $1,619,706 during their racing careers.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Brooklyn fans still are beefing about the way Leo Durocher keeps shifting his Dodger players around. But look how Lou Boudreau and Joe McCarthy have been making out lately by using similar tactics in the other league . . . Piggy Lambert, who recently resigned as National Basketball League commissioner, says he's through with the court game and will devote his time to scouting for the New York Yankees in baseball and football.

When the Chicago White Sox acquired Pudgy Pat Seery, he was assigned uniform number five . . . said Pat: "It looks like I'll have to hit like the dickens to stay even with the other No. 5 guys in our league—Joe DiMaggio and my former boss in Cleveland, Lou Boudreau."

Yorkshire XI Hands Champs First Defeat

LONDON, June 8 (Reuters).—Demoralizing Middlesex by fine bowling and fielding, Yorkshire inflicted the first defeat of the season on the county cricket champions at Lords today.

Yorkshire took less than 75 minutes to get down the remaining six wickets for 63 runs.

County cricket results:

Yorkshire beat Middlesex by an innings and 80 runs. Yorkshire first innings 392. Middlesex first innings 186, second innings 126.

Glamorgan beat Kent by an innings and 63 runs. Glamorgan first innings 434; Kent first innings 181, second innings 280.

Warwickshire beat Leicestershire by seven wickets. Leicestershire first innings 73, second innings 112. Warwickshire first innings 144, second innings 44 for three wickets.

Hampshire beat Gloucestershire by 137 runs. Hampshire first innings 258, second innings 187; Gloucestershire first innings 114, second innings 174.

Surrey beat Essex by four wickets. Essex first innings 271, second innings 351 for four wickets declared; Surrey first innings 468, second innings 155 for six wickets.

Form A.A.A. For Negroes In Montreal

MONTREAL, June 8 (CP).—The formation of Montreal's first All-Negro Amateur Athletic Association was announced here today by officials of the Negro Branch of the Canadian Legion, the backers of the project.

The new setup, to be affiliated with the Quebec Branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, is expected to be functioning in all phases of sport shortly.

Although plans are still in the infant stage, the N.A.A.A. hopes to make its first major step in track and field.

Montreal's negro community has in the last decade boasted of some of the city's fastest runners. Included among these is Dr Phil Edwards, now at the St. Hyacinthe Hospital, and considered by many Montreal track observers as the greatest of all Canadian male runners.

And track is not all the N.A.A.A. hopes to get started on shortly. Boxing, hockey, football, baseball are only a few of the other sports the N.A.A.A. hopes to promote.

In boxing, two negro local battlers stood out at the recent Dominion championships and Olympic trials. They were Heavyweight Jim Davis who reached the semi-finals before dropping a close decision to Adam Faul of Regina, the eventual champion, and Flyweight Bobbie Jones who was decisioned by Joey Sandulo in the finals.

Connell Leading Calgary Riders

CALGARY, June 8 (CP).—Jockey Stan Connell was the leading rider at the Calgary Spring race meet with 11 winners to gain a slight advantage over Rex Leavitt and Jimmy Sivewright, who brought home ten mounts apiece.

Trainer honors were shared by Ned Northwood of Stevely, Alberta, and Lou Marks, Lexington, Ky. They saddled six winners each, while Earl Robertson of Edmonton and H. Fisher, Vancouver, each had four winners.

FIFTH STRAIGHT WIN

Luxton Valley Variety Club walloped Colwood, 27-13, Monday night for their fifth straight victory in the Colwood and District Midget Softball League.

Luxton had previously defeated Jordan River, 16-10 and 15-14, Colwood, 16-6; and Sooke, 20-3.

Obviously, South took the bit in his teeth from the very start and refused to let go!

West slyly opened the heart jack from his doubleton holding. South should not have fallen for this, but he did! Putting up dummy's ace, he promptly finessed to his own ten, and West was pleased to rake in the trick with his singleton queen.

No doubt encouraged by this success, West now boldly attacked the club suit where he suspected (rightly) that declarer had another finessing position. When West led the club nine, South considered the finesse, but he finally decided that the best play was to cash four spades, four hearts and one club and then to put his faith in the diamond finesse.

West was very much up against it for discards on the hearts and spades, but he gave up two low diamonds and two clubs without the slightest indication of discomfort! Naturally, declarer now could have caught the diamond queen — but how could he know it? He followed up his none-too-brilliant performance by cashing the diamond king and leading the eight to the jack. Thereupon West made his loose queen of diamonds, and when he laid down the club king, the contract was down two, South actually losing his diamond ace!

ANSWER TO YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE

Little Stories for Bedtime - - -

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

SAMMY JAY MAKES UP HIS MIND

When you have quite made up your mind
To do a thing, do it!
As surely as you put it off
You're bound some day to rue it.

That is one of the truest things in the world. It is a great mistake to put off doing a thing you have made up your mind should be done. Just as sure as you do, the day will come when you will be sorry. It is doing promptly the things that must be done that helps the great world along. And it saves a deal of trouble—trouble for yourself and trouble for others. On the other hand, don't do things hastily. Don't do a thing and think about it later. Think first, make sure in your own mind what is right, then do it. You know what a lot of trouble Peter Rabbit gets into by doing his thinking too late. Sammy Jay doesn't often make this mistake.

So that is why Sammy sat in his thinking tree and argued with himself about telling the secret of Reddy Fox and Mrs. Reddy. He wanted to tell it. He could find a lot of reasons why he should tell it. But his better self found a lot of reasons why he shouldn't tell it. At least, his better self said that he shouldn't tell the whole secret. It would be all right to tell Peter Rabbit and Danny Meadow Mouse and a few others that Reddy and Mrs. Reddy had babies and for this reason would be sure to hunt harder than ever, but it wouldn't be right to tell where those babies were hidden. Sammy wanted to tell the whole secret, not half of it. So he argued and argued with himself, until at last he made up his mind what he should do.

"Well, I've settled it, anyway; I've made up my mind just what I'll do," said he right out, forgetting that he might be overheard.

"What will you do?" demanded Chatterer the Red Squirrel from the very next tree, where he had been watching Sammy, though Sammy didn't know it.

"If I told you then you'd know. But instead I think I'll go," retorted Sammy, snapping his sharp eyes at Chatterer. You know these two scamps are forever quarreling.

"What will you do?" demanded Chatterer the Red Squirrel from the very next tree.

"All right, Mr. Smarty," barked Chatterer, "but if you really do know what you'll do, I guess it will be the first time such a thing ever happened."

Right away Sammy's temper flared up and he half spread his wings to fly at Chatterer. Just in time he remembered that Chatterer really was bubbling with curiosity to know what was in his mind, so, instead of flying at Chatterer, he chuckled and replied: "I really do know, and if you knew what I know you would know what no one else but Reddy Fox and Mrs. Reddy know. Can you guess what it is?"

"No," replied Chatterer. "What is it?" His sharp face was very eager, for Chatterer likes to know all that is going on.

"That would be telling," retorted Sammy saucily. "Ask Reddy Fox."

With that Sammy flew away, chuckling to himself, while Chatterer flew into a rage and barked all the bad things he could think of after him. Sammy flew straight over to the dear Old Brier Patch to look for Peter Rabbit. He had made up his mind to tell Peter and Danny Meadow Mouse and a few others about Reddy's babies, that they might keep a sharper watch on their own babies, but that he wouldn't tell where Reddy's babies were. In this way he would be doing Peter and the others a service and, at the same time, would be doing Reddy no harm.

Next Story: Peter and Mrs. Peter Grateful to Sammy.

NEW LAW

PRAGUE, June 8 (Reuters).—A new marriage law giving women the right to retain their maiden names and the children the right to choose either the father's or mother's family name is proposed in Czecho-Slovakia.

PLAN PENALTIES

MEXICO CITY, June 8 (AP).—Stiff homicide penalties will be enforced to check traffic deaths, the Attorney-General's office said yesterday. Drivers of "death cars" will be charged with intentional homicide. Conviction means 18 to 20 years in jail.

Cut Minimum For Electricity In Rural Areas

A major change in B.C. Electric policy governing minimum guarantee payments for electricity in rural areas and conditions under which new services will be made available, were announced yesterday by W. C. Mainwaring, Island vice-president.

The company has reduced the minimum monthly guarantee payments to $2, he said, adding extension of pole lines up to 1,500 feet will be made without charge.

Mr. Mainwaring's announcement will affect more than 300 consumers on the company's rural service on Lower Vancouver Island who pay minimum guarantees in excess of the new lower figure.

"This policy in effect will mean that minimum guarantees are virtually abolished since there are very few on our rural service system who do not consume more than $2 worth of electricity per month," said Mr. Waring. He explained previous minimums had been worked out individually on the basis of the pole line extension involved and the amount of service required.

Turning to the new pole extension policy, Mr. Mainwaring declared the company would undertake a 1,500-foot extension without charge to the consumer provided there was no unreasonable physical obstacle to overcome. Longer extensions will continue to be considered on their individual merits.

On Vancouver Island the new policy will apply throughout the area by the B.C. Electric south of Cobble Hill. It will mean that farmers and residents of the rural area who are without electricity may connect into the system at the new low rate.

Move to Oust Wootton Hit

Any attempt to replace R. A. Wootton as Saanich municipal solicitor would be a disgraceful act, according to Saanich Ward Three Ratepayers' Association.

N. Cowper-Bell, president of the association, has written the council stating that the group is deeply concerned over the move to have Mr. Wootton removed because he is Reeve of Oak Bay.

Ward Four Ratepayers' Association recently voiced strong opposition to the Oak Bay Reeve being municipal solicitor for Saanich.

"If his professional advice is sound and his charges reasonable, the activities of the municipal solicitor in other spheres concern neither the council or the ratepayers, providing always that these activities are reputable," the letter stated.

Saanich Council received and filed the letter.

Owner Appeals Saanich Ruling

Ernest Tait, owner of a new subdivision on Cadboro Bay Road, has appealed to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council against a decision of the Saanich Council refusing him permission to build roads on the development less than 40 feet wide.

The council appointed H. D. Dawson, municipal engineer, to present the case for the municipality. Mr. Tait informed the council by letter that he was appealing in pursuance of a section of the Land Registry Act.

Mr. Tait asked permission to construct the roads less than 40 feet in width because of the peculiar nature of his land, which was dotted with natural springs. Road building, he said, was extremely difficult because of this factor. Size of his property would be reduced if he had to make roads 40 feet wide, he contended.

Mr. Dawson at a recent meeting maintained that he had to comply with regulations, adding that the municipality in the past had had great difficulty with 20-foot lanes.

Councillors Len Hobbs and William Kersey said at last night's meeting that they felt that Mr. Tait had been dealt with rather severely.

Weatherman Says "Cooler"

Preening themselves after successfully predicting yesterday's continued heat, weathermen soothed Victorians last night with promises of "clear and cooler" weather for today.

Yesterday's maximum temperature at Dominion Meteorological Observatory, Gonzales Heights, was 79, against a predicted 80.

Maximum forecast for today is 75.

Normal School Entry Praised By Adjudicator

Regret that more people were not present to experience "some creative magic of the theatre," was voiced by Miss Dorothy Somerset, adjudicating "Nix-Nought-Nothing," second play of the second session of the Victoria Drama Festival, held in the Victoria High School auditorium last evening.

The small but enthusiastic audience listened closely to the adjudication of three one-act plays. "Diet Begins Tomorrow," presented by the Athena Club Dramatic group, was a farcical skit, and should have been played at a faster tempo, with a much quicker pick-up on cues. However, the players had good diction, and moved well. Mrs. M. Mulhollan directed.

"Gray Bread," presented by St. Margaret's Drama Club directed by Mrs. Eleanor Hewitt, demanded much of a young actress through a drastic change in characterization in a very short time. The set and lighting were good, and Percia Wilkinson, as an old peasant woman, was especially commended. Wendy Trump as Yolande, the young girl whose longing for romance forms the chief dramatic conflict in the play, was complimented on her voice and stage presence.

"Nix-Nought-Nothing," presented by the Provincial Normal School, directed by Margot Gordon, was in the opinion of the adjudicator beautifully set, and costumed, and possessed real imaginative warmth and color.

The music, composed by Mrs. Boyce Gaddes, was well suited in mood and added to the artistry of the production.

James McGrath was chairman, and Barry Turner played piano solos during the intermissions. The festival continues tonight, with the first play at 8 p.m., at the Victoria High School.

Issues Order For Demolition

Saanich Building Inspector J. S. Taylor has caught up with the elusive Beckwith Avenue Chinese farmer.

Mr. Taylor has been seeking the Chinese to instruct him to demolish the ramshackle premises in which he lives. The dwelling has been referred to as a "pile of boxes."

Under one section of building regulations it has to be proven that the structure was erected within the last six months. If this cannot be proven, Mr. Taylor believes there are other regulations that can produce the desired results.

MEMBER RESIGNS

OTTAWA, June 8 (CP).—Resignation of Walter Tucker, Liberal leader in Saskatchewan, as Member of Parliament for Rosthern was announced formally by the Speaker in the Commons today.

Mr. Tucker is contesting a seat in the provincial election June 24.

Concert Presented At First United

FIRST United Church Choir, assisted by the Victoria Philharmonic Orchestra under the leadership of Lieut.-Cmdr. R. P. Besant, gave a concert in the church auditorium last night.

Soloists taking part were J. H. Kent, Miss Louise Martin, Miss Kay Roberts, Miss Marjorie Goodwin, Miss Marion Mitchell, Stanley Martin, M. Thomas, B. Woodward and S. Oakes.

Eric T. Hulatt conducted the choir and Gertrude Warn was the accompanist.

Death Cause Not Accident

A verdict of death from natural causes was returned yesterday by a coroner's jury inquiring into the death on Saturday of Albert R. Green, 71, 3333 Shelbourne Street.

Mr. Green died in Veterans' Hospital. The jury ruled that Mr. Green did not die as a result of injuries he sustained when he was in collision with a truck on January 24 at the intersection of Cormorant and Douglas Streets.

Dr. G. Homer testified at the inquest that Mr. Green's cuts and bruises received from the accident had completely healed. He said that Mr. Green died from a disease he had had long before the accident. The patient died after an operation, Dr. Homer said.

City Students Busy Helping Flood Victims

Greater Victoria school children take second place to no one when it comes to aiding in the fight to halt Fraser River floods.

Yesterday, in an all-out drive for badly needed sandbags, the students collected an estimated 15,000, according to J. F. K. English, school inspector. Four delivery vans carried the bags to Bay Street Armoury.

Best record was set by three schools, each of which collected 2,000.

A further good record by young residents of the city was set by the James Bay Eagles Cub Pack. Last night they were out again completing a canvass of the James Bay district for clothing for flood victims.

Monday evening some 30 of the Cubs rounded up a pile of used clothing weighing "nearly two tons" and earned a hearty pat on the back from Cubmaster E. H. West.

"These small lads between the ages of eight and 11 deserve more credit for their efforts than most people realize," Mr. West said last night. "They got right in there on Monday and collected nearly two tons of clothing for the flood victims. They're not half done yet, either."

Mr. West said the boys had time to canvass only a small portion of the homes in the James Bay district on Monday. He engineered the drive and carted the clothing to Eagles headquarters on View Street from where it will be sent out to flooded areas of British Columbia.

"It was a very successful drive," commented Mrs. M. G. Pagan, cubmistress. "The people in the district were very pleased to see the boys come to their doors. Most of the residents had their things ready and packed in boxes and the boys just called around and picked them up."

TORONTO, June 8 (CP).—The MacLean-Hunter Publishing Company reported 1947 revenue at $8,694,701, an increase of $1,321,664 over 1946, and the highest in the firm's history.

Child Drowns in Stream

PORT ALBERNI, June 8. — A small creek near the family residence at the Bloedel, Stewart & Welch, Ltd., Franklin River Camp "B" claimed the life of Duncan Lawlor, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lawlor, it was reported to Provincial Police here.

The child apperently was playing near the creek, and fell into one and a half feet of water. Dr. N. H. Jones, the coroner, is conducting an investigation.

Early Resident Dies Up-Island

CAMPBELL RIVER, June 8.—The body of Arvid Dahl, aged about 74, an old-time resident of Campbell [illegible] Saturday floating in shallow water near Masters' boat runway. The discovery was made by Ernest Masters and William Emery.

The two men had noticed Mr Dahl's empty skiff floating on the water, and on investigating found the body. Cause of death is not known, and a coroner's inquiry will be held this week under Dr. N. B Hall.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Sutton's funeral parlor, and burial took place in Campbell River cemetery.

Duncan Raises Large Amount

DUNCAN, June 8. — Cowichan District's contribution to the B.C. Flood Emergency Fund stood at $6,614 Tuesday morning. It is made up of donations from service clubs, civic groups, industrial concerns and individuals. Tag days and ball games helped to swell the total.

The Cowichan flood relief committee was appointed on short notice last week by the Duncan Chamber of Commerce, and response was equally spontaneous

The tag day for flood relief was held last Saturday by the W.A. to the Canadian Legion, under the supervision of Mrs. F. W. Russell. Representatives of every women's organization at Duncan were among the taggers, as well as high school girls. The public contributed $800.

Explains Failure Of Power Supply

DUNCAN, June 8.—At a special meeting of the executive of the Chamber of Commerce, a report of the Flood Relief Committee was read with great satisfaction. A guest at the meeting was C. W. Nash of the B.C. Power Commission. He explained that the recent power failures at Duncan were attributable to the lack of certain types of equipment which was on order, but due to present conditions the deliveries were not being made.

The parking meter committee of the Chamber is scheduled to meet the City Council at 1 p.m. on Wednesday to present a brief.

The Chamber's delegates to the annual meeting of the A.B.T.V.I. to be held at Port Alberni on June 15 and 16 will be Norman Gourlay, vice-president; F. G. Aldersley, a past president, and Capt. Alan Rall, secretary. The first two were named when Winter Cook and W. W. Seymour, immediate past president, were forced to withdraw their names due to pressure of other business.

Forced to Close

LADYSMITH, June 8. — Main camp of the Comox Logging & Railway Co. Ltd., was closed today because of low humidity and the dry condition of the forests. It is anticipated that other Vancouver Island logging camps will close if hot weather continues.

Approve Purchase

A by-law for the sale of the Nanaimo-Duncan Utilities Company Ltd., waterworks system to the City of Duncan was approved by Provincial order in council yesterday.

Help Flood Victims

HONEYMOON BAY, June 8. — Noel Harrison, chairman of a committee collecting for the relief of Fraser Valley flood victims, announced Monday that $1,090 had been contributed to the fund by employees of Western Forest Industries, Ltd. here

Company holdings, through Vancouver headquarters, have donated $5,000.

Alberni Reserves Join Flood Battle

PORT ALBERNI, June 8. — The Reserve Army unit of the Alberni district has been called to flood duty in the Fraser Valley.

Major David Power and Lieut. W. Jones, with 35 other ranks, left for the flood area, the unit traveling in its own transport.

Called Out Twice

ZEBALLOS, June 8.—The fire department was called out on two successive days last week—first for Zeballos Hospital, and then for a big fire at the slough where refuse is dumped. To prevent the spread of this latter fire, 600 gallons of water were used.

RAISE CASH FOR HOSPITAL

ZEBALLOS, June 8.—Nearly $400 was realized at a dance and floor show staged by Women's Auxiliary to the Zeballos General Hospital. Proceeds will be turned over to hospital directors.

Lost Man Safe

DUNCAN, June 8.—Lost in the woods since Saturday, P. S. Kubay, a young logger from Gordon River Camp, 12 miles from Cowichan Lake, turned up safely Tuesday. It is estimated he walked 50 miles before reaching the coastline.

Mesachie Dust Held Nuisance

MESACHIE LAKE, June 8.—This community is eating and sleeping dust. With hundreds of cars passing through here daily, residents are wondering when the South Shore road is to be surfaced or oiled Honeymoon Bay, at the end of the road, is not suffering quite so much of the nuisance.

In many homes and company buildings a thick film of dust covers everything. Some housewives complain they have to wash dishes before and after meals.

The danger of road accidents is great. Many cars, when passing, have to pull up until dust clears, and it is advisable not to attempt to pass a car, at any time, even on a straight stretch. A number of cars have broken windshields from loose stones thrown by others passing.

Objective $5,000 For Salt Spring

GANGES, June 8.—In a united effort of Salt Spring Island residents to raise $5,000 for the British Columbia Flood Emergency Fund, representatives of local organizations met recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Mouat, Ganges, with Mrs. Cecil Springford presiding, and Mrs. F. Sharpe acting as secretary.

Arrangements were made to hold a house-to-house canvass up to June 11. Mrs. A. Davis was made convener of the canvassing at Fulford, assisted by Mrs. E. Forsen and Mrs. J. White. Others will include Mrs. Fred Jackson and Mrs. George Maude; Mrs. Ronald Lee, Beaver Point; Mrs. V. C. Best, Mrs. W. M. Mouat, Mrs. E. H. L. Newman and Mrs. Dallas Perry, Ganges; Mrs C. Zenkie, Booth Canal district; Mrs F. H. Newnham, Long Harbor and Scott Road; Mrs. George Lowe, Churchill Road; Group Capt. and Mrs. W. E. Dipple, Beddis Road; Mrs. T. Childerstone, Central Settlement; Mrs. A. B. Cartwright, Mrs Cecil Springford and Mrs. Bishop Wilson, North Salt Spring; Mrs. R. T. Britton and Mrs. A. E. Duke, Vesuvius Bay, and Mrs. F. Sharpe, Ganges School.

The newly-formed Salt Spring Island Chamber of Commerce recently collected $1,000 from among members.

Bury Cedar Resident

NANAIMO, June 8.—The funeral of the late John Henry Crook, who died in Nanaimo hospital Saturday night, was held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Jenkins Chapel. Mr. Crook came to the province in 1884, and resided in North Vancouver until 1911, when he removed to Cedar District, six miles south of here.

TO MEET AT EAST SOOKE

EAST SOOKE, June 8. — East Sooke Farmers Institute will meet in East Sooke Hall at 8 p.m. Saturday. L. Eddy, president, presented prizes to Miss J. Eddy, Miss G. Drew, Mrs. A. Barnes, Mrs. M. Derbyshire, W. Dalziel and J. Harrison during a recent court whist drive and dance held by the institute.

EXAMINATIONS THURSDAY

SOOKE, June 8. — All children eligible to attend Sooke Elementary School next September will be given free medical examinations in the school at 1 p.m. Thursday. The district medical health officer and Miss E. Urvold, R.N., will be in charge.

Weather Forecasts

East Coast of Vancouver Island—Clear. Light winds, becoming northwest 15 m.p.h. in the afternoon. Little change in temperature West Coast of Vancouver Island—Clear. Winds north 20 m.p.h. Little change in temperature.

Mesachie Loggers Take Early Shift

MESACHIE LAKE, June 8.—Loggers for Hillcrest Lumber Co. Ltd. went on early shift Tuesday morning because of continued heat wave.

Daylight Saving Time is never popular with loggers, and now that they must start work two hours earlier, some do not obtain much slumber.

Regular shift is from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Traveling time to the woods from Mesachie Lake is approximately 40 minutes. Those residing in and near Duncan have an hour's traveling time each way daily. "Allow another hour for breakfast and time to catch the bus," said one worker, "and some of us have to get up—yesterday. We have to work early shift, but do we have daylight saving on top of that"? he asked. Mill workers maintain their regular shift.

Resumes Voyages

ZEBALLOS, June 8.—The Merry Meade, captained by C. Harvey, which has been undergoing repairs and a general overhaul for the past few weeks, is back in service again. She makes two trips weekly to Tahsis and points between.

Campbell River Home Damaged

CAMPBELL RIVER, June 8.—Fire caused by an overheated chimney did damage estimated at $50 early Monday to the home of G. Miller. Campbell River Volunteer Fire Department answered the alarm at 5:30 a.m., and confined the damage to the roof and one wall of the house

May Acquire Camp Huts

PORT ALBERNI, June 8.—Residents of the army camp emergency shelter project here approved in principle a scheme whereby camp huts or portions of them could be purchased by tenants and set up as houses on camp lots.

John Mosdell, instigator of the plan, reported that a questionnaire sent to 130 families revealed 101 in favor of purchasing their quarters, and 23 opposed. He pointed out only 28 were in a position to finance their purchases, which indicated that financing by a loan company would be necessary.

He told the meeting that city officials would seek an interview at Vancouver with the regional property manager of the Central Mortgage & Housing Corporation. Those present favored loans repayable at the rate of about $30 monthly.

Monkey at Large Amuses Citizens

DUNCAN, June 8.—A pet Rhesus monkey, tired of staying at home in the heat, skipped out of the hands of its owner, Mrs. Laura Keefer, and scurried along Canada Avenue, brushing against the legs of startled shoppers.

The monkey's dash for freedom brought it to the Tzouhalem Hotel. Cocking an eye at the shady verandah, it decided to stop for a rest, and climbed the steps. Annoyed by the cajoling of persons attempting to bribe it back into captivity, the monkey climbed up a roof near the Canadian Legion Hall.

Remembering the monkey's fondness for riding in cars, Mrs. Keefer brought her machine downtown and parked it on the street beneath her pet.

In a twinkling the monkey slithered down to the street and hopped into the car while his mistress slammed the doors and drove off.

Quits Board Post

PORT ALBERNI, June 8.—Resignation of Mrs. J. E. McEachern, chairman of the Alberni District School Board No. 70, was accepted with regret by trustees. Mrs Joseph Skipsey was elected to fill the position. The retiring chairman was presented with a handbag in recognition of her services to the board.

Three tenders for construction of the Gill School were opened. Southern Construction Company bid $169,000, and Peterson Construction Company $157,800. The bids will be referred to the Department of Education.

Trustees expect the plans will have to be revised, as the lowest tender is $47,800 higher than the estimates.

To Lay Out Park

OTTAWA, June 8.—Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., M.P., received word that an order in council approving transfer to the village of Lake Cowichan of part of the property occupied by the Dominion Government Fish Hatchery had been passed. Land will be used for establishment of a new park.

Seek to Increase B.C. Flood Fund

LAKE COWICHAN, June 8.—Plans to raise additional money for the British Columbia Flood Emergency Fund were discussed at a special meeting of the Lake Chamber of Commerce executive Progress to date was outlined by G. M. Hewlett, chairman, and a committee was named to extend contacts through the district. The committee includes the executive and George Grant, who attended as representative of Lake Cowichan Elks Lodge No. 203.

Mr. Grant advised the meeting that the Elks Lodge had authorized him to give $100 to the fund, and T. R. Pauls, on behalf of the Kinsmen, said he was authorized to donate $25.

Make Speedy Run

COLWOOD, June 8. — It took members of the Colwood Volunteer Fire Brigade exactly four minutes and six seconds to lay water on the Colwood Community Club during a test run staged for the benefit of the Colwood Community Association. Fireman Dick Emery acted the part of a man overcome by smoke, and was rescued by Deputy Fire Chief Colin Smith. E. M. Emery, assistant fire marshal, presented certificates from the Fire Marshal's course to Fire Chief Walter Gwyer, Deputy Fire Chief Smith, Firemen C. A. Coombes, Roy Wills, Thomas Price, Leonard Slater, Dick Emery, Alan Emery and Robert Little, secretary

Plan to Collect

CAMPBELL RIVER, June 8. — Alex McLean was appointed chairman, Kenneth Brown treasurer, and A. C. Lipp secretary of the local flood relief fund. Organizations taking part include Campbell River Rotary Club, Knights of Pythias, Campbell River and District Board of Trade, Catholic Women's League, I.W.A. Auxiliary, Canadian Legion Auxiliary, Lourdes Hospital Auxiliary, Kinsmen Club, and Campbell River Fish and Game Association. More than $600 has already been raised on Quadra Island.

Win School Cups

KEATING, June 8.—Royal Oak, Cordova Bay, West Saanich, Prospect Lake, Keating and Saanichton Schools recently held their annual sports at Prospect Lake. Cordova Bay won the grand aggregate cup with 107 points, and Keating gained the junior aggregate cup. Cordova Bay also carried off the percentage shield and the boys' relay cup. Saanichton won the girls' relay cup

Head-On Crash Injures Seven

PORT ALBERNI, June 8.—Seven persons were taken to hospital on Sunday afternoon for examination after two cars were in head-on collision at a point about one mile beyond Sproat Lake on the Great Central Road.

Five were allowed to go home after treatment.

Jo Anne Tremblay, a child, who sustained a lacerated chin, and Leonard Bewley, a teen-age boy with a broken ankle, were admitted to hospital.

About $500 damage was done to each car, according to Provincial Police. Alberni One was driven by Henry Tremblay and carrying seven passengers. The other car was driven by William Fraser.

Passengers in the Tremblay car included Mrs. Tremblay and Jo Anne, Mrs. Fred Baturin and daughter, Irena, who suffered a badly wrenched arm, and Mrs. Irena Dorofay.

In addition to the driver the other car carried Norman Macready, Leonard Bewley, James and Frank McEachern, all local youths.

Heads Teen Group

CHEMAINUS, June 8. — Miss Joyce McInnes, Teen Town mayor of Chemainus, was elected president of the Island Teen Town Association at the Island annual convention at Nanaimo.

One of many resolutions passed by the convention was that all Teen Towns donate to flood relief committees in their respective areas. Chemainus Teen Town will hold a beach party in July.

Co-operative Seeks Members

LADYSMITH, June 8.—A membership drive with an objective of at least 100 new members is at present being conducted by the Ladysmith Co-operative Association.

The drive was decided on at a recent meeting as a preliminary to establishing a retail store.

Association officers include: John Ulinder, president; Bernard Box, vice-president; William Palmer, secretary-treasurer; Axel Anderson, Leonard Hawkins, Eric Erickson, Alfred Ostrand, directors.

Killed at Youbou

Edward Herman, 44, a faller engaged in logging operations at Youbou, was killed in an accident Monday, Provincial Police reported yesterday. No inquest has been set

Galiano Aids Fund

GALIANO ISLAND, June 8. — More than $200 was collected for the British Columbia Flood Emergency Fund during a campaign sponsored by the Galiano Island Development Association.

SPRINKLING REGULATIONS—EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY

All properties having an EVEN street number or situated on the NORTH OR WEST side of a street will sprinkle on EVEN numbered days only, i.e., the 8th, 10th, 12th, etc

All properties having an ODD street number or situated on the SOUTH OR EAST side of a street will sprinkle on ODD numbered days only, i.e., 9th, 11th, 13th, etc.

Regulations regarding the use of water for gardening purposes apply to SUNDAYS as well as other days.

Open hose irrigation is strictly prohibited

These regulations must be maintained. Any person found guilty of an infraction of these regulations shall be liable to a fine of not less than $25.00 for the first offence and not less than $50.00 for each subsequent offence

If you are in doubt as to your sprinkling days, phone the Water Department, G 4100 or Colquitz 61.

JOHN B. TRIBE
Clerk of the Corporation of the District of Saanich.
